St. Augustine of Canterbury (d. 605?) – May 27

In the year 596, some 40 monks set out from Rome to evangelize the Anglo-Saxons in England. Leading the group was Augustine ... Hardly had he and his men reached Gaul (France) when they heard stories of the ferocity of the Anglo-Saxons and of the treacherous waters of the English Channel. Augustine returned to Rome and to the pope who had sent them – St. Gregory the Great ... only to be assured by him that their fears were groundless.

Augustine again set out. This time the group crossed the English Channel and landed in the territory of Kent, ruled by King Ethelbert, a pagan married to a Christian, Bertha. Ethelbert received them kindly, set up a residence for them in Canterbury and within the year, on Pentecost Sunday, 597, was himself baptized. After being consecrated a bishop in France, Augustine returned to Canterbury, where he founded his see... sees were [also] established at London and Rochester.

Work was sometimes slow and Augustine did not always meet with success. Attempts to reconcile the Anglo-Saxon Christians with the original Briton Christians ... ended in dismal failure. Augustine failed to convince the Britons to give up certain Celtic customs at variance with Rome and to forget their bitterness, helping him evangelize their Anglo-Saxon conquerors.

Laboring patiently, Augustine wisely heeded the missionary principles ... suggested by Pope Gregory the Great: purify rather than destroy pagan temples and customs; let pagan rites and festivals be transformed into Christian feasts; retain local customs as far as possible. The limited success Augustine achieved in England ... would eventually bear fruit long after in the conversion of England. Augustine of Canterbury can truly be called the "Apostle of England."

Dear Padre

May 23, 2021

Why is there now a Mass honoring Mary after Pentecost?

The eleven apostles and some women, including Mary the Mother of Jesus, were praying in the upper room when they were filled with the Holy Spirit, which descended upon them as a strong wind and as tongues of fire (see Acts 1:13–14; 2:1–13). This is the final time Mary's name appears in the New Testament. In Luke's Acts of the Apostles, the same Holy Spirit that overshadowed Mary at the annunciation in Luke 1:38 now comes upon her during Pentecost. "Just as the Incarnation of the Spirit had formed the physical body of Christ in her virginal womb, now in the upper room the same Spirit comes down to give life to the Mystical Body" (St. John Paul II, general audience, May 28, 1997).

Thus, the Virgin Mary, full of grace and filled with the Holy Spirit, is both the Mother of Christ and Mother of the Church. "Mary is the mother of the members of Christ, because with charity she cooperated in the rebirth of the faithful into the Church," wrote St. Augustine (354–430).

In 1975, The Roman Missal included a votive Mass honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary under her ancient title, Mother of the Church. However, in 2018, Pope Francis elevated this votive Mass to an annual obligatory memorial in the General Roman Calendar, observed on the Monday following Pentecost (also called Whit Monday).

Mary is a model for the gifts of the Holy Spirit, exemplifying "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (Galatians 5:22–23).

India's Fight against Covid – Urgent Appeal to raise funds for St. John's Medical College and Hospital

As many of you may know, India is facing a devastating surge in Covid 19 cases. Hospitals are overwhelmed and their medical staff working beyond exhaustion to care for patients and overcome this crisis. We urgently need your help: please consider donating to St. John's Medical College and Hospital ("St. John's"). St. John's is the only catholic medical school in India, a non-corporate, not-for-profit hospital, fully supported by the Catholic Bishops Conference of India. St John's has been at the forefront of the fight against Covid. One of our longtime parishioners, Dr. Sujatha Rajan, received her training from St. John's – as Sujatha describes in her letter (linked below), while relief is arriving in India from all over the world, very little is sent to the south where St. John's is located.

Please use the following link to donate:

<https://fosj2021.ticketspice.com/crowd/st-johns-covid-relief-fundraiser/fundraiser/3294>. Your donations will go directly to the hospital and the entirety applied towards the Covid 19 crisis.

Please click of the link below and read Sujatha's letter to parishioners for more information.

NOT THERE YET: Challenges Facing Women at Worship, Work and Home

Saturday, June 5 from 10:00 - 11:30am
St. Pius X Church Scarsdale, NY (outside church entrance) Equality is still elusive for women in many aspects of daily life, and the Covid-19 pandemic has been an added setback.

Join us for discussions on three specific topics (speaker bios are now on the St. Pius website).

 Women's Leadership in the Church: Beyond Martha and Mary

Dr. Natalia Imperatori-Lee, Professor, Religious Studies and coordinator, Catholic Studies Program at Manhattan College. Author of Cuéntame: Narrative in the Ecclesial Present, and articles in Commonweal and America. Featured on CNN and MSNBC. She will focus on the lack of advancement of women in the Catholic Church and what needs to change.

 Facing the New Reality for Women: Career + Caregiver + Educator: Impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic

Discuss with Sima Saran Ahuja and Lisa Tretler current workplace practices and the need for a new post-Covid paradigm to help women succeed in their multi-dimensional roles. Sima is College Counsel for Marist College. Lisa is the founder and CEO of Business Boosters Consulting focused on the professional development of women business owner. During a panel discussion we'll probe current practices and new opportunities with several senior working women.

 When Home is Not A Safe Haven

Hear from Vanessa Barreto, a bi-lingual Domestic Violence Counselor at My Sister's Place how domestic violence and home insecurity complicates an already difficult situation for Moms. My Sister's Place is a non-profit organization whose mission is "providing hope, achieving justice and changing lives".
