Saints & Special Observances

Sunday: The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
Wednesday: St. Ephrem
Friday: Most Sacred Heart of Jesus
Saturday: Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary

The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, June 11

The Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus is a reminder that our human – our hearts – must be inclined to God’s providential love for each and every one of us. The opening prayer for today’s liturgy expresses how the heart of Jesus is a symbol of “the wonders of his love for us” and reminds us “of the overflowing measure of grace” that comes to us through Christ ...

The daily prayer prescribed in the book of Deuteronomy 6:5-6: “Therefore, you shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul and with all your strength. Take to heart these words which I enjoin on you today.” The prophets speak of how God will remove the “stony heart of sinners” and give them a new living heart.

When asked what was the greatest commandment (Mt 22:36-39), Jesus quoted Deuteronomy 6:5 and joined it to the injunction of Leviticus 19:18: “Love your neighbor as yourself.” This teaching of Jesus is the heart of his teaching.

Christian history bears witness to how devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus appears to have offered a remedy to the harsh spirituality of the Jansenist period ... [which] emphasized human sin and depravity that fear of hell and damnation lurked in the hearts of many Catholics ... St. John Eudes (1602–1680) and St. Margaret Mary Alacoque (1647-90) played key roles in promoting devotion to the Sacred Heart.

The celebration of the Feast of the Sacred Heart is a great reminder of the love of God for each of us. “God so loved us that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life” (Jn 3:16).

Dear Padre

June 6, 2021

Should extraordinary eucharistic ministers receive Communion before or after the congregation? In my home, guests are normally served first.

Fundamentally, we’re all guests in the house of God at the gracious invitation of Jesus Christ! When the presider and ministers of holy Communion gather in the sanctuary to consume, they affirm their belief in the Real Presence of Christ. Then, in service, they proceed to distribute the Body and Blood of Christ to the faithful, asking others to affirm that same belief. In this affirmation of faith, and in rendering service to one another, the worshiping community forms a unified “body of Christ.”

Therefore, according to the Norms for the Distribution and Reception of Holy Communion: “The practice of extraordinary ministers of holy Communion waiting to receive holy Communion until after the distribution of holy Communion is not in accord with liturgical law” (NDRHC 39). Essentially then, these extraordinary ministers cannot give what they haven’t already received.

The amount of time for ordinary and extraordinary ministers to receive holy Communion need not be prolonged unnecessarily before others can partake. Despite logistical challenges, especially for the cantor and choir, the General Instruction of The Roman Missal advises, “While the priest is receiving the sacrament, the Communion chant is begun, its purpose being to express the spiritual union of the communicants by means of the unity of their voices, to show gladness of heart, and to bring out more clearly the ‘communitarian’ character of the procession to receive the Eucharist” (GIRM 86).

FOOD PANTRY:

To quote a recent newspaper article, "THERE IS NO VACCINE FOR HUNGER". We are entering the summer season where traditionally food pantries across the country experience a huge loss in donations due to people traveling and not being in their home churches. Covid has increased the number of families needing help!

We had a huge outpouring of food donated during our Lenten Food Drive. This has dropped off dramatically, but needy families are going hungry and need help all year. PLEASE pick up canned or packaged goods that may be on sale when you shop to bring in when you attend Mass or put in the Food Pantry closet when you are in the area. If you find it too difficult to shop or carry in groceries, please consider making out a check of any size to:
