Parish Stewardship

God bless you warmly & often for your support!

If you do not attend Mass in-person, please mail in your weekly envelopes to the rectory, or consider signing up for online donations with WeShare.

May 2021: $38,264.17 (from WeShare $15,487.00)

April 2021: $31,384.50 (from WeShare: $16,792)

Easter 2021: $118,737.49 (updated 5/18/21)

March 2021: $38,752.45 (from WeShare: $16,408.00)

888 Registered parishioners, 731 Families receiving envelopes, 98 active participants using WeShare.

Ways you can give:

1. Use weekly envelopes for your donations.
(please mail in, if possible during Mass suspensions.)
2. WeShare is an automated means to support our parish through monthly contributions from your checking, savings or credit/debit card account.
Visit: <https://saintpiusxchurch.churchgiving.com/>.
3. Please remember the church in your estate planning by including Church of St. Pius X in your will.

Make a bigger impact by donating long-term appreciated securities, including stock, bonds, and mutual funds, directly to the Church of St. Pius X. Compared with donating cash, or selling your appreciated securities and contributing the after-tax proceeds, you may be able to automatically increase your gift and your tax deduction. To participate, contact Elizabeth, our parish secretary, at (914) 725-2755.

Saints & Special Observances

Sunday: 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Monday: St. Anthony Zaccaria
St. Elizabeth of Portugal
Tuesday: St. Maria Goretti
Friday: St. Augustine Zhao Rong & Comp.

Saint Elizabeth of Portugal,
(1271 – July 4, 1336), July 5

Elizabeth is usually depicted in royal garb with a dove or an olive branch. At her birth in 1271, her father Pedro III, future king of Aragon, was reconciled with his father James, the reigning monarch.

This proved to be a portent of things to come. Under the healthful influences surrounding her early years, she quickly learned self-discipline and acquired a taste for spirituality.

Thus fortunately prepared, Elizabeth was able to meet the challenge when at the age of 12, she was given in marriage to Denis, king of Portugal. She was able to establish for herself a pattern of life conducive to growth in God's love, not merely through her exercises of piety, including daily Mass, but also through her exercise of charity, by which she was able to befriend and help pilgrims, strangers, the sick, the poor—in a word, all those whose need came to her notice. At the same time she remained devoted to her husband, whose infidelity to her was a scandal to the kingdom.

Denis, too, was the object of many of her peace endeavors. Elizabeth long sought peace for him with God, and was finally rewarded when he gave up his life of sin. She repeatedly sought and effected peace between the king and their rebellious son Alfonso, who thought that he was passed over to favor the king's illegitimate children. She acted as peacemaker in the struggle between Ferdinand, king of Aragon, and his cousin James, who claimed the crown. And finally from Coimbra, where she had retired as a Franciscan tertiary to the monastery of the Poor Clares after the death of her husband, Elizabeth set out and was able to bring about a lasting peace between her son Alfonso, now king of Portugal, and his son-in-law, the king of Castile.

Dear Padre

July 4, 2021

Does religious freedom mean we're free to worship whoever and whatever we wish? I thought Jesus gave us rules on this.

Jesus gave us the gift of freedom. Even as he hung on the cross, he didn't use force to change the minds of people or coerce them to believe in him. His example shaped the Declaration on Religious Freedom (Dignitatis Humanae), a document from the Second Vatican Council. The council gave us several principles that outline our beliefs about religious freedom:

First, God has made known to us the way in which we are to serve God and find salvation and eternal life in Jesus.

Second, this one true religion consists in the catholic and apostolic Church. To this Church, the Lord himself committed the obligation and duty to spread the truth that salvation in Jesus is ours.

Third, all people are bound to seek the truth, to embrace the truth they come to know, and to hold fast to that truth.

Finally, all of us have a right to be immune from coercion by individuals, social groups, or other human powers. No one is to be forced to act contrary to personal beliefs or prevented from acting in accord with those beliefs.

This also means that if people choose to reject Christ, they must not be forced to do anything against their will. The judgment for their actions must be left up to God. As a Church, we proclaim the truth of Christ and set high standards for membership in the Church, but we do not force people to convert or believe.

Important Announcement About Attending Mass – UPDATE!

Starting in July, as part of New York State's lifting most of the coronavirus restrictions, the Church of St. Pius X is also easing some of our safety protocols.

- We no longer need you to make reservations to attend Mass.
- Parishioners will once again be choosing their own seats as they arrive. We will be maintaining social distancing between family groups in the pews.
- We will still maintain every other pew roped off for additional social distancing

If you have come to enjoy a specific seat during the reservation time period, please arrive early for best opportunity to sit in your preferred seats.

We do ask that you still:

- Wear masks, covering nose and mouth at all times, except to consume the host.
- Keep 3 feet distance and avoid gathering.
- Sanitize your hands when entering the Church.
- For weekend and holiday Masses, please remain in your originally chosen seat. Please do not change seats during the service.
- You should arrive 15 minutes before Mass begins so that you can sit in your preferred seats.
- Per CDC guidelines, it is no longer necessary to sanitize personal space between Masses but we will continue to do a weekly cleaning of the church. The sanitizing materials will remain in the pews for any person who wishes to sanitize his/her personal space before sitting.
- Do not attend Mass if in the last 14 days:
 - you have had any of the symptoms associated with contracting the COVID-19 Virus.
 - you have tested positive for COVID-19.
 - you have been in close contact with someone with a confirmed or suspected COVID-19 case.

If you are diagnosed with COVID-19 in the subsequent 7 days after attending mass, please notify us by calling the parish office at 914-725-2755. Strictly confidential.

Thank you very much for your understanding and cooperation!

Recent Events at the Church of St. Pius X

This was the last Mass we had to register. We will continue to wear masks and social distance, but it feels great to see the end. Thanks to the Reopening Committee, though a small group of parishioners, they were at every Mass and all of them served multiple masses, including Holy Days, Christmas, Easter, and special events. We can't find enough ways to say thank you – they worked tirelessly!

Parish Announcements

PLEASE JOIN US

Sunday July 18, 12 o'clock/noon Mass,
celebrated by the newly ordained Father
Zachariah Presutti, SJ.

Father Zach is the founder of Thrive for Life Prison Project, which transforms lives behind and beyond the U.S. Prison walls through monthly retreats rooted in the Jesuit spiritual tradition, and offers supporting housing, education and job training to formerly incarcerated individuals.

At the end of mass, we will present Father Zach with the check of the proceeds from our first annual Race with Grace.

Thrive for Life

What are the chances of staying out of prison once incarcerated? Not good. However, with stable, safe housing, a job, education, mentorship and purpose the odds improve. Thrive for Life Prison Program which runs Ignacio House of Studies in Bronx and New York City, helps support re-entry to society for formerly incarcerated men.

Serena and Marina Cardillo Pratt and Kathy Cripps delivered Sunday dinner to some of the men working and living at Ignacio House; Sunday dinner is their time to converse, reflect and prepare for the week ahead.

EMAIL SCAMS

In light of the recent incidents with some parishioners of the Church of St. Pius X, we would like to make it clear that our Parish Council President, Marina Cardillo-Pratt is NOT asking for any assistance of any kind from anyone in the parish. Nor is Father Sebastian looking for a "quick correspondence via email." If you receive any email from Marina or Father Sebastian asking about these things, please DO NOT respond and block/delete the bogus email and message.

Marina Cardillo-Pratt's real email is mammadoc@gmail.com.
Father Sebastian's real email is fbacatan@yahoo.com.

FOOD PANTRY:

To quote a recent newspaper article, "THERE IS NO VACCINE FOR HUNGER". Summer is upon us. Traditionally food pantries across the country experience a huge loss in donations due to people traveling and not being in their home churches. Covid has increased the number of families needing help!

We had a huge outpouring of food donated during our Lenten Food Drive. This has dropped off dramatically, but needy families are going hungry and need help all year. PLEASE pick up canned or packaged goods that may be on sale when you shop to bring in when you attend Mass or put in the Food Pantry closet when you are in the area. If you find it too difficult to shop or carry in groceries, please consider making out a check of any size to:

Volunteers Needed to Spread the Good News!

"We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ." 1 Thessalonians 1:2-3

What Is a Catechist?

The word catechist comes from the Greek word meaning "to echo." Catechists echo the Word of God to our parish children. They come from all walks of life and all ages; women, men, confirmed teenagers, parents, grandparents, singles, and religious. Catechists are not expert teachers or brilliant theologians. They are ordinary people, just like you, who generously volunteer their time to share our Catholic faith, values and traditions with our youngest generation of Christians. They are positive role models who help children grow in faith and spirituality. What an important ministry! Their gift has tremendous value ... because through their words and actions, the message of Christ continues to spread throughout the world.
