Saints & Special Observances

Sunday: 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wednesday: Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Thursday: St. Peter Claver

Saint Peter Claver (June 26, 1581 – September 8, 1654), September 9

A native of Spain, young Jesuit Peter Claver left his homeland forever in 1610 to be a missionary in the colonies of the New World. He sailed into Cartagena [and] was ordained there in 1615.

By this time the slave trade had been established in the Americas for nearly 100 years, and Cartagena was a chief center for it. Ten thousand slaves poured into the port each year after crossing the Atlantic from West Africa under conditions so foul and inhuman that an estimated one-third of the passengers died in transit...

Peter Claver's predecessor, Jesuit Father Alfonso de Sandoval, had devoted himself to the service of the slaves for 40 years before Claver arrived to continue his work, declaring himself "the slave of the Negroes forever."

As soon as a slave ship entered the port ... Claver plunged in among them with medicines, food, bread, brandy, lemons, and tobacco. With the help of interpreters he gave basic instructions and assured his brothers and sisters of their human dignity and God's love. During the 40 years of his ministry, Claver instructed and baptized an estimated 300,000 slaves.

Fr. Claver's apostolate extended beyond his care for slaves. He became a moral force, the apostle of Cartagena. He preached in the city square, gave missions to sailors and traders as well as country missions, during which he avoided, when possible, the hospitality of the planters and owners and lodged in the slave quarters instead.

After four years of sickness, which forced the saint to remain inactive and largely neglected, he died on September 8, 1654. The city magistrates, who had previously frowned at his solicitude for the black outcasts, ordered that he should be buried at public expense and with great pomp.

Peter Claver was canonized in 1888, and Pope Leo XIII declared him the worldwide patron of missionary work among black slaves.

Dear Padre

September 5, 2021

Martyrs and people who commit suicide willingly sacrifice their lives, so how are they different? If I deliberately put myself in a position to be killed—even for a worthy cause—isn't that a form of suicide?

Life is a gift from God. While both martyrdom and suicide contradict the natural human disposition to preserve and perpetuate life, the former is a totally self-giving act; the latter, a self-inflicted one.

The early Church believed that martyrs went directly to heaven because their sacrifice of life was the ultimate Christlike expression. Their courageous endurance of indignities and tortures—their heroic willingness to die in defense of the faith or to save another's life—demonstrates a supreme love of God and neighbor over love for life itself (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2473).

Those who take their own lives to end personal suffering or despair make a decision that belongs to God alone. It's an action that can revolve totally around the "self," often with little thought given to its consequences. It's a sin against hope (CCC 2091) that reveals a lack of faith and trust in God. Conversely, martyrdom is a profound expression of faith, trust, and hope in God. Nevertheless, our compassionate God fully knows the intensity of suffering that triggers suicide and "can provide the opportunity for salutary repentance" (CCC 2283).

FOOD PANTRY:

To quote a recent newspaper article, "THERE IS NO VACCINE FOR HUNGER". Summer is upon us. Traditionally food pantries across the country experience a huge loss in donations due to people traveling and not being in their home churches. Covid has increased the number of families needing help!

We had a huge outpouring of food donated during our Lenten Food Drive. This has dropped off dramatically, but needy families are going hungry and need help all year. PLEASE pick up canned or packaged goods that may be on sale when you shop to bring in when you attend Mass or put in the Food Pantry closet when you are in the area. If you find it too difficult to shop or carry in groceries, please consider making out a check of any size to:

Family Hospitality Table

Hospitality after the 10:30 am family Mass on Sundays has become an important ministry at St. Pius X. It allows parishioners to gather after Mass as a community to chat with friends and to welcome new families while enjoying a snack. We are looking for families to volunteer to host the hospitality table one Sunday during the year. The children love to help with this simple family service project. If you would like to volunteer to host, please click on the link below and select a date. If you would prefer to host with another family, there are dates for multiple families to host as well. We are most grateful for the kindness and generosity of the host families without whom this ministry would not be possible. Please note: Hospitality will be done outside the Narthex under the glass canopy.
