Saints & Special Observances

Sunday: 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Monday: St. Peter Damian

Tuesday: Chair of St. Peter

Wednesday: St. Polycarp

The Chair of Saint Peter, February 22

This feast commemorates Christ's choosing Peter to sit in his place as the servant-authority of the whole Church.

After the “lost weekend” of pain, doubt, and self-torment, Peter hears the Good News. Angels at the tomb say to Magdalene, “The Lord has risen! Go, tell his disciples and Peter.” John relates that when he and Peter ran to the tomb, the younger outraced the older, then waited for him. Peter entered, saw the wrappings on the ground, the headpiece rolled up in a place by itself. John saw and believed. But he adds a reminder: “[T]hey did not yet understand the scripture that he had to rise from the dead” (John 20:9). They went home. There the slowly exploding, impossible idea became reality. Jesus appeared to them as they waited fearfully behind locked doors. “Peace be with you,” he said (John 20:21b), and they rejoiced.

The Pentecost event completed Peter’s experience of the risen Christ. “[T]hey were all filled with the holy Spirit” (Acts 2:4a) ...

Only then can Peter fulfill the task Jesus had given him: “[O]nce you have turned back, you must strengthen your brothers” (Luke 22:32). He at once becomes the spokesman for the Twelve about their experience of the Holy Spirit ... He is the first to preach the Good News to the Gentiles. The healing power of Jesus in him is well attested: the raising of Tabitha from the dead, the cure of the crippled beggar. People carry the sick into the streets so that when Peter passed his shadow might fall on them...

At the end of John’s Gospel, Jesus says to Peter, “Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go” (John 21:18). What Jesus said indicated the sort of death by which Peter was to glorify God ...

Dear Padre

February 20, 2022

Previously you wrote that the Church is the bride of Christ, and we should remain faithful to that bond. Is there another reason to remain in the Catholic Church?

The Church is also the body of Christ. When Jesus ascended into heaven, he left his disciples with the mission he had received from the Father: instruct everyone in Jesus’ teachings and baptize them into his divine life (Matthew 28:19–20). Through the Church, Jesus would remain present in the world.

Some take offense because the Church claims the authority of Jesus himself to teach. It teaches that marriage is between one man and one woman, that contraception and abortion are immoral, that capital punishment is a sin. Jesus himself may not have expressly addressed these issues, but he said to his apostles, “Whoever listens to you listens to me. Whoever rejects you rejects me” (Luke 10:16). And to Peter he said, “Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven” (Matthew 16:19).

It’s true that since the time of the apostles some members, and even Church leaders, have caused scandal. The Lord asks that they, like Peter, repent and live a life of obedience and service to the Lord. That’s why it’s important that we examine our own actions. Someone who abandons the Church due to scandals within its ranks should realize that encouraging others to abandon the bride of Christ and the body of Christ is a scandalous act itself.

7th Grade Brown Bag Lunch project:

A big THANK YOU to our 7th graders, their families & REPTA for their donations and support of our annual Brown Bag Lunch project!

This year our students, along with their teacher Frank Scinicariello, prepared 299 lunches!

Lunches contained sandwiches, fresh fruit, snacks and water bottles packed in bags our students decorated with uplifting quotes and pictures. Next, a group of students, their teacher & parent drivers traveled to the Hope Community Soup Kitchen in New Rochelle to deliver the lunch bags for distribution to the needy men and women who receive a daily evening hot meal there.

Many thanks to Ellen for helping to coordinate everything, Pamela Mo for shopping and delivering multiple REPTA donations, Marie Scinicariello, Elena Bediako, Kristen & Michael Mulcahy, Tracey Kurzweil for all their help on-site and at the Soup Kitchen and of course Fr. Raymond for jumping in to make sandwiches and for sending us off with a warm blessing!

It was a great experience for all!
