and went up the mountain to pray.
While he was praying his face changed
in appearance
and his clothing became dazzling white.
[...] Then from the cloud came a voice
that said,
“This is my chosen Son; listen to him.”

Saints & Special Observances

Sunday 2nd Sunday of Lent

Thursday St. Patrick

Friday St. Cyril

Saturday St. Joseph

Saint Patrick (c. 386 – 461), March 17

Details of [Patrick's] life are uncertain. Current research places his dates of birth and death a little later than earlier accounts. Patrick may have been born in Dunbarton, Scotland, Cumberland, England, or in northern Wales. He called himself both a Roman and a Briton. At 16, he and a large number of his father's slaves and vassals were captured by Irish raiders and sold as slaves in Ireland. Forced to work as a shepherd, he suffered greatly from hunger and cold.

After six years Patrick escaped ... [and] returned to Britain at the age of 22. His captivity had meant spiritual conversion. He may have studied at Lerins, off the French coast; he spent years at Auxerre, France, and was consecrated bishop at the age of 43. His great desire was to proclaim the good news to the Irish.

In a dream vision it seemed "all the children of Ireland from their mothers' wombs were stretching out their hands" to him. He understood the vision to be a call to do mission work in pagan Ireland ... He went to the west and north ... obtained the protection of local kings, and made numerous converts.

Because of the island's pagan background, Patrick [encouraged] widows to remain chaste and young women to consecrate their virginity to Christ. He ordained many priests, divided the country into dioceses, held Church councils, founded several monasteries and [urged greater holiness in Christ].

He suffered much opposition from pagan druids and was criticized in both England and Ireland for the way he conducted his mission.

In a relatively short time, the island had experienced deeply the Christian spirit, and was prepared to send out missionaries whose efforts were greatly responsible for Christianizing Europe.

Patrick was a man of action, with little inclination toward learning. He had a rocklike belief in his vocation, in the cause he had espoused ...

SUPPORT UKRAINE, SUPPORT PEACE

"Those who wage war forget humanity. They do not start from the people, they do not look at the real life of people, but place partisan interests and power before all else. They trust in the diabolical and perverse logic of weapons, which is the furthest from the logic of God. And they distance themselves from ordinary people, who want peace, and who — the ordinary people — are the real victims in every conflict, who pay for the follies of war with their own skin." Pope Francis, Angelus February 27

As in anguish and disbelief, we witness the cruelty of war, let's unite in prayer to be close to the sufferings of the Ukrainian people. If you would like to send monetary aids, please consider one of the following non-profit organizations, among others: UNHCR, Razom for Ukraine, International Rescue Committee, Doctors Without Borders, Afya foundation, Catholic Relief.

St. Pius X Parish is collecting monetary donations, which will be sent to the special fund "War Victims and Humanitarian Crisis in Ukraine", created by the Ukrainian Catholic Archeparchy (Archdiocese) of Philadelphia.

You can contribute by cash, check (please place it in the designated box in our church) or send to St Pius X Church, or VENMO @SaintPiusX-ParishCouncil - please SPECIFY SUPPORT TO UKRAINE. Deadline to participate in our community collection is March 27.

Your prayers and support will make so much difference. Please give a vital gift today!

From first-time donors to NY Blood Center Gallon Club Members, many St. Pius X Parishioners as well as friends and neighbors responded to the call to donate blood. The March 6 St. Pius Blood Drive was a huge success collecting a total of 58 pints of blood — 54 pints of whole blood and 2 “double reds” (equivalent to 4 pints each). Thanks to ALL who came to donate, the volunteers and the amazing staff at the New York Blood Center. If you missed the blood drive and would like to help fill the urgent need for blood, please contact the New York Blood Center at 800-933-2566 to schedule a convenient time and location.

As we have done in the past, paper grocery bags with suggested food lists attached will be on the tables in the Narthex. Please take home a bag and bring it back the following week with canned or packaged foods and place in the Food Pantry closet. The need is so great!

Thank you so much!
