What is Laetare Sunday?

(Excerpts taken from fathersforgood.com interview with Father Ernest, Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in Scarsdale)

A little light breaks into Lent this Sunday

Fathers for Good: Where does the name “Laetare Sunday” come from?

Father Ernest: Laetare Sunday, the Fourth Sunday of Lent, takes its name from the Latin word which begins the entrance antiphon (introit) for that day. Laetare means rejoice, and this Sunday is marked by a relaxation of the penitential character of the Lenten season. In church, flowers may be used to adorn the altar on this day, and the organ may be played more fully.

FFG: Are we supposed to “Rejoice!” in the middle of Lent?

Father Ernest: Indeed we are! On this Sunday, we look with expectation to the great Solemnity of Easter for which we have been preparing ourselves as a Church during the Lenten season. By its anticipation of the joy of Easter, Laetare Sunday is meant to give us hope and encouragement as we slowly progress towards the Paschal Feast.

FFG: Did the priests used to wear pink rose vestments on this Sunday?

Father Ernest: Not only did priests used to wear rose vestments, but they still may! On both Laetare Sunday and Gaudete Sunday (the Third Sunday of Advent), a priest may wear rose vestments. The color rose is used as a sign of the joy which characterizes these two Sundays. The use of rose vestments probably stems from an ancient papal tradition of blessing golden roses which would be sent to Catholic heads of state in Europe on the Fourth Sunday of Lent ...

SUPPORT UKRAINE, SUPPORT PEACE

“Those who wage war forget humanity. They do not start from the people, they do not look at the real life of people, but place partisan interests and power before all else. They trust in the diabolical and perverse logic of weapons, which is the furthest from the logic of God. And they distance themselves from ordinary people, who want peace, and who — the ordinary people — are the real victims in every conflict, who pay for the follies of war with their own skin.” Pope Francis, Angelus February 27

As in anguish and disbelief, we witness the cruelty of war, let’s unite in prayer to be close to the sufferings of the Ukrainian people. If you would like to send monetary aids, please consider one of the following non-profit organizations, among others: UNHCR, Razom for Ukraine, International Rescue Committee, Doctors Without Borders, Afya foundation, Catholic Relief.

St. Pius X Parish is collecting monetary donations, which will be sent to the special fund “War Victims and Humanitarian Crisis in Ukraine”, created by the Ukrainian Catholic Archeparchy (Archdiocese) of Philadelphia.

You can contribute by cash, check (please place it in the designated box in our church) or send to St Pius X Church, or VENMO @SaintPiusX-ParishCoucil - please SPECIFY SUPPORT TO UKRAINE. Deadline to participate in our community collection is March 27.

Your prayers and support will make so much difference. Please give a vital gift today!

LENT: MORE THAN PENANCE

To think of Lent only as a time of penance is to do it an injustice. While the traditional practice of "doing something" for Lent is praiseworthy, there is much more to this wonderful season than just additional practices of piety or acts of penance and mortification. In Lent the Church calls us to metanoia.

...That word, metanoia, connotes a change of mind and heart, altering one's mind-set toward whole new ways of thinking and acting. This involves taking a look at where we are and trying to see where we ought to be. It involves testing our values and discerning how they stack up against the values that Jesus offers his followers.

...The [readings] for the first three weeks [of Lent] have to do almost exclusively with change of heart: what it means and what it involves. They present the classic motifs of Lent: prayer, care for our neighbor, repentance for our sinfulness.

The fourth and fifth weeks [readings] deal at first with the basics of Jesus' mission and thus further outline the change of heart that is required of us while, at the same time, teaching us about what [we] are to seek from him in Baptism.

LENTEN FOOD DRIVE

Beginning on Ash Wednesday, March 2 and running through Palm Sunday, April 10.

The ongoing pandemic has taken an economic toll on many of us but especially those who are food insecure and struggle to feed their families.

Our Lenten Food Drive has always been one of the most productive food collection times of the year and serves so many needy, working poor families at the joint parishes of St. Peter's and St. Denis' in Yonkers.

As we have done in the past, paper grocery bags with suggested food lists attached will be on the tables in the Narthex. Please take home a bag and bring it back the following week with canned or packaged foods and place in the Food Pantry closet. The need is so great!

Thank you so much!
Dolores Brett, Food Pantry Coordinator, dbrett9@gmail.com.

If you are unable to shop or carry in groceries, a check of any size may be made out to Church of St. Pius X with a notation in the memo section that says "Food Drive." Checks should be mailed to:
