Saint Benedict (c. 480 – c. 547), July 11

It is unfortunate that no contemporary biography was written of a man who has exercised the greatest influence on monasticism in the West. Benedict is well recognized in the later Dialogues of Saint Gregory, but these are sketches...of the miraculous elements of his career.

Benedict was born into a distinguished family in central Italy, studied at Rome, and early in life was drawn to monasticism. At first he became a hermit, leaving a depressing world—pagan armies on the march, the Church torn by schism, people suffering from war, morality at a low ebb.

He soon realized that he could not live a hidden life in a small town any better than in a large city, so he withdrew to a cave high in the mountains for three years. Some monks chose Benedict as their leader for a while, but found his strictness not to their taste. Still the shift from hermit to community life had begun for him. He had an idea of gathering various families of monks into one “Grand Monastery” to give them the benefit of unity, fraternity, and permanent worship in one house. Finally he began to build what was to become one of the most famous monasteries in the world—Monte Cassino, commanding three narrow valleys running toward the mountains north of Naples.

The Rule that gradually developed prescribed a life of liturgical prayer, study, manual labor, and living together in community under a common abbot. Benedictine asceticism is known for its moderation, and Benedictine charity has always shown concern for the people in the surrounding countryside. In the course of the Middle Ages, all monasticism in the West was gradually brought under the Rule of St. Benedict.

Today the Benedictine family is represented by two branches: the Benedictine Federation encompassing the men and women of the Order of St. Benedict, and the Cistercians, men and women of the Order of Cistercians of the Strict Observance.

Dear Padre

July 10, 2022

Why must I choose practicing Catholics as my baby's godparents?

The Church is clear about the qualifications of godparents: at least sixteen years old; one woman and one man leading lives of faith; confirmed and having already received Communion (see Canons 872–874). Godparent isn't simply an honorary title we bestow on someone. It's an important role of trust in the child's faith life.

We grow in trust for someone via a gradual process of getting to know that person: being introduced, spending time together, talking to one another, learning about each other, and being generous with one another.

That's how trust in Jesus develops. Parents and godparents introduce us to him, teach us to pray. We talk to Jesus on our own and learn more about him through Scripture. Our parents take us to church. We watch their example and that of our godparents. We learn from the parish, the Catholic school, and our Catechism. It's a gradual process of getting to know Jesus that leads us to trust him and have faith in him.

At baptism, the priest or deacon lights a candle from the large Easter candle. In many parishes, the candle is passed first to the godfather. “Receive the light of Christ,” says the priest. The godfather passes it to the godmother, who passes it to the mother, who hands it to the father to hold for the child. That is how faith comes to us: a gift from God, but through other people. Parents and godparents must have the bright flame of faith in their own hearts if they hope to pass it to their child.

FOOD PANTRY:

Recent inflation has affected all of us.

When you are already struggling to put food on your family's table, an extra $10 to $50 a week at the food store is a luxury many of the working poor cannot afford. This on top of many who have already been hit hard by the pandemic. More of these people are turning to food pantries to help them out.

If you are in a position to do so, please continue to bring in packaged and canned food products and place in the Food Pantry closets in the Narthex hallway. If you are unable to shop for or carry heavy groceries, a gift card to ShopRite for fresh produce or a check in any amount made out to - Church of St. Pius X may be mailed to:

Church of St. Pius X

91 Secor Rd.
Scarsdale, NY 10583

Please note in the memo section that this is a donation to the food pantry.

Thank you for your continued generosity!

Bag-2-School

In what continues to be a time of great need for many in our community, we ask that you please consider supporting our St. Pius X Parish initiative: Bag2School, through August 26. Many families are struggling, and children still need to learn. The good news is that we can provide much needed assistance to these children thanks to your donations. This year, we hope to support the following organizations:

- My Sister's Place: This wonderful organization strives to end domestic violence and human trafficking by providing free education, outreach, and confidential supportive and legal services throughout Westchester County. The goal is to send tablets and/or school supplies to the children at the shelter. The students and counselors would really appreciate our support!
- The Sharing Shelf's Backpacks to School: The Sharing Shelf has launched its annual Backpacks to School program to provide new backpacks and new school supplies to low-income children and teens in Westchester County. The organization plans to provide not just the basics, but enhanced materials such as age-appropriate educational magazines, puzzles, activity sets and books.
- Holy Spirit Church (Bronx): Underprivileged children in public schools under the Holy Spirit Church's (Father Gabriel's new parish) religious education program need supplies for the upcoming school year. They are very grateful for your generosity!

Donate Today:

- Checks: Make checks payable to Church of Saint Pius X with a note on the memo line: Bag2School.
- Venmo: @SaintPiusX-ParishCouncil

What Is a Catechist?

The word catechist comes from a Greek word meaning "to echo."

Catechists echo the Word of God to our parish children. They come from all walks of life and all ages: women, men, confirmed teenagers, parents, grandparents, singles, and religious. Catechists are not expert teachers or brilliant theologians. They are ordinary people, just like you, who generously volunteer their time to share our Catholic faith, values, and traditions with our youngest generation of Christians. They are positive role models who help children grow in faith and spirituality. What an important ministry! Their gift has tremendous value... because through their words and actions, the message of Christ continues to spread throughout the world.

The Religious Education needs volunteer Catechists and Assistants/Hall Monitors. For more details, please call or email (stpiusxreled@yahoo.com) the Religious Education Office.
