Saint Rose of Lima (April 20, 1586 – August 24, 1617), August 23

The first canonized saint of the New World has one characteristic of all saints—the suffering of opposition ...

She was born to parents of Spanish descent in Lima, Peru, at a time when South America was in its first century of evangelization. She seems to have taken Catherine of Siena as a model ...

The saints have so great a love of God that what seems bizarre to us, and is indeed sometimes imprudent, is simply a logical carrying out of a conviction that anything that might endanger a loving relationship with God must be rooted out. So, because her beauty was so often admired, Rose used to rub her face with pepper to produce disfiguring blotches. Later, she wore a thick circlet of silver on her head, studded on the inside, like a crown of thorns.

When her parents fell into financial trouble, she worked in the garden all day and sewed at night ... [Her parents] tried to make Rose marry. They refused to let her enter a convent, and out of obedience she continued her life of penance and solitude at home as a member of the Third Order of Saint Dominic ...

During the last few years of her life, Rose set up a room in the house where she cared for homeless children, the elderly, and the sick. This was a beginning of social services in Peru. Though secluded in life and activity, she was brought to the attention of Inquisition interrogators, who could only say that she was influenced by grace.

What might have been a merely eccentric life was transfigured from the inside. If we remember some unusual penances, we should also remember the greatest thing about Rose: a love of God so ardent that it withstood ridicule from without ...

Dear Padre

August 21, 2022

I have some views that differ from the Church's stance. Must all my beliefs align with the Church?

The answer to this question is difficult without knowing your specific views. Generally speaking, Catholics affirm a deposit of faith that the Church has received and is bound to preserve. This includes the public revelation of God manifest in the incarnate Word of God (Jesus Christ) and preserved in the sacred Scriptures and apostolic Tradition. This deposit of faith ended with the death of the last apostle.

The deposit of faith entrusted to the Church is not simply a set of propositional truths, but is bound up in the person of Jesus Christ, who is the fullness of God's revelation to humanity. Catholics commonly agree on certain teachings central to the deposit of faith and taught by Church authority, including the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, the role of the sacraments, and creeds formulated by ancient councils. (Catholics are not required to believe in many of the private revelations and visions that have accumulated over the centuries.)

Since the mid-1800s, theologians and Church leaders have debated the infallible nature of documents issued by popes and the Vatican and the extent to which they're binding on Catholics. All agree, however, that these documents should be given the utmost consideration. Those who disagree with the Church on faith or moral issues should investigate the reasons for specific teachings. When they realize that God's laws and moral teachings begin with the dignity of the person, they may conform their views to God's truth which the Church wishes to convey and uphold.

Bag 2 School Update: We have more than doubled our goal – THANK YOU!!

THANK YOU!

Dear Parishioners,

We are happy to report that we have broken a new record for our Bag 2 School initiative and more than doubled our target: thanks to incredibly generous contribution of an anonymous parishioner who matched donations up to our $5,000 goal, we are able to distribute over $11,000 to three incredibly worthy organizations in our area: My Sister's Place, The Sharing Shelf and Holy Spirit Church (in the Bronx).

Our parish continues to be an inspiration to all. Thank you all so very, very much for this generous act of giving and bringing such joy to children as they head back to school.

May God Bless You,
—Marie-Hélène McAndrew

Family Hospitality Table

Hospitality after the 10:30 am family Mass on Sundays has become an important ministry at St. Pius X. It allows parishioners to gather after Mass as a community to chat with friends and to welcome new families while enjoying a snack. We are looking for families to volunteer to host the Hospitality Table one Sunday during the year. The children love to help with this simple family service project. If you would like to volunteer to host, please click on the link below and select a date. If you would prefer to host with another family, there are dates for multiple families to host as well. We are most grateful for the kindness and generosity of the host families without whom this ministry would not be possible.

Religious Education

IMPORTANT DATES & INFO:

Dear Parents and Students in 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grade Religious Education classes,

We hope that you are enjoying your summer and that everyone is healthy. The good news is that St. Pius X Religious Education Program is preparing some wonderful volunteer opportunities for our older classes. In order to improve upon our current curriculum and to give the students a more hands on experience with our various ministries, Fathers Sebastian and Raymond have decided that the Religious Education in class time for the older grades ONLY will be on Mondays from 3:30 to 4:30pm. Also, and in addition to the Religious Education classes, they will also meet at different locations in order to allow for Community Service Projects once a month. These projects will count as part of their required in class time. More details will follow as we develop and finalize these thoughts.

Sincerely,
The Religious Education Team

- Anyone who exhibits symptoms or may have been exposed to COVID-19 may not enter the facilities.
- Parent/guardian cannot leave until his/her young person clears screening.

Special considerations, please, from your Director:

- Drive carefully and slowly.
- No child should be on the playground before or after class without adult supervision.
- No food may be brought into classroom by young people or Catechists. But children may bring their own snack and finish it by 3:30pm in the car or at the school lobby.

For special occasions, Parish Hall will be used for any food consumption.

Consistent attendance is expected. If a learner has a total of three (3) absences a conference with the parents will be required. Confirmation preparation begins at Baptism and continue throughout the years preceding this sacrament. A call to report an absence is expected by a parent.

Parents or guardians are not allowed to pick up their child/children in the classroom during class. At no time will a child be permitted to leave the classroom on his/her own. For early dismissal, someone from the office will get the student from his/her classroom.

Cellphone

No cellphone usage, text messaging or other electronic devices will be allowed in the classroom or at any Religious Education Program activity. Cellphones maybe used in the school lobby to communicate with parents or guardians ONLY, NOT for social calls, and as permitted by Catechists at off-site Religious Education Program activities. Cellphones and other electronic devices maybe confiscated if these rules are violated. Parents may be required to retrieve them.
