Blessing of Expectant Mothers and Newborns

Children's Homily with Father Raymond

Dear Padre

October 9, 2022

How long is Mass supposed to last? My sister leaves after an hour even if the priest is still talking. Shouldn't she wait until it's over?

There's no rule about how long Mass should last, but it's inappropriate to arrive late or leave before the final blessing or the end of the recessional song. People should leave early only if they get sick or if they're doctors, police officers, or firefighters called away for an emergency.

Weekend activities should be scheduled around Mass. Saturday night Masses were designed for people who work Sundays and for parishes with too few priests to accommodate everyone on Sunday. They weren't designed to make it easier to get a good tee time on Sunday morning.

It's also important to remember that local customs and traditions affect the length of Mass. When I worked as a missionary in Brazil, Sunday Mass could go on for nearly three hours. When I celebrated Mass in Scotland, the pastor said I had to be done in a half-hour.

Most areas have more than one church. Encourage your sister to either grow accustomed to the tradition of the parish she attends or look for another church. As a rule, I don't think it's good to "shop around" for Mass, but if your sister is that bothered by the length of the Mass at her current church, it might be better for her to go elsewhere.

CYFM and the Women Of The Waters Women's Retreat: Women in the Genealogy of Jesus; Saturday, November 05, 2022, 9:00 am to 4:00 pm at St. Lawrence Retreat Center, 180 Sargent Ave, Beacon, NY 12508. The culture of ancient Israel almost exclusively acknowledged genealogical lineage through men. The women in Jesus' genealogy stand out like beacons in a stream of male names – and they still do. Their presence fairly shouts the questions: Who were these women? And why did the Holy Spirit single them out as ancestors of the Messiah? Join the Women of the Waters and discover these complex women, some with messy lives, desperate acts, and broken hopes; some unswervingly positive and energetic, full of joy and kindness; all included in the lineage of Jesus demonstrate precisely the kind of people he came to save! The $65.00 fee includes continental breakfast and lunch; register online by the deadline, October 31, 2022, at <https://bit.ly/womenofwaters2022>
