Seven Founders of the Servite Order, February 17

Can you imagine seven prominent men of Boston or Denver banding together, leaving their homes and professions, and going into solitude for a life directly given to God? That is what happened in the cultured and prosperous city of Florence in the middle of the 13th century. The city was torn with political strife as well as the heresy of the Cathari, who believed that physical reality was inherently evil. Morals were low and religion seemed meaningless.

In 1240, seven noblemen of Florence mutually decided to withdraw from the city to a solitary place for prayer and direct service of God. Their initial difficulty was providing for their dependents, since two were still married and two were widowers.

Their aim was to lead a life of penance and prayer, but they soon found themselves disturbed by constant visitors from Florence. They next withdrew to the deserted slopes of Monte Senario.

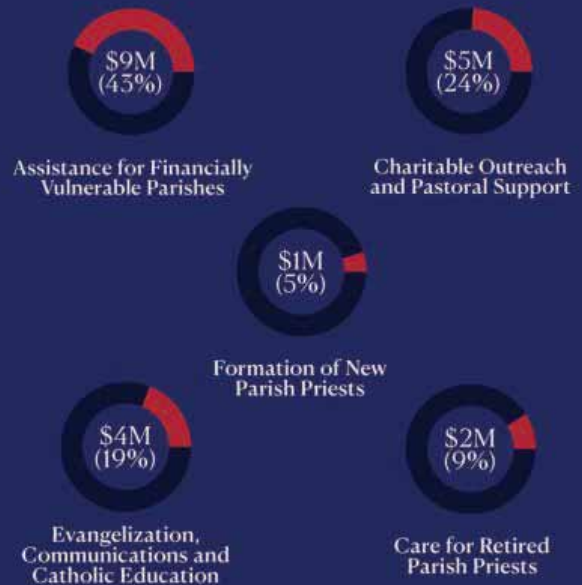

In 1244, under the direction of Saint Peter of Verona, O.P., this small group adopted a religious habit similar to the Dominican habit, choosing to live under the Rule of St. Augustine and adopting the name of the Servants of Mary. The new Order took a form more like that of the mendicant friars than that of the older monastic Orders.

Members of the community came to the United States from Austria in 1852 and settled in New York and later in Philadelphia. The two American provinces developed from the foundation made by Father Austin Morini in 1870 in Wisconsin...

Living the Legacy of Vatican II in Today's Parish: Prospects and Challenges

ST. PIUS X CHURCH
PARISH HALL
SCARSDALE, NY
Ramsey Road, ramp entrance or through school lobby/ parking lot on Secor Road.

SUNDAY, MARCH 5, 1:30 P.M.
THIS EVENT IS FREE.

Sixty years after Vatican II, we are now living in "the era of the heirs" to the Council. How are we "living the legacy" of Vatican II at this time in history, and how can today's parish carry forward that legacy creatively as we walk into the future together?

Rita Ferrone is an award-winning writer and frequent speaker on issues of liturgy and church renewal in the Roman Catholic tradition. Coming from a background in parish and diocesan ministry, she is currently a contributing writer to Commonweal magazine and Give Us This Day. She is the author of several books, including Liturgy: Sacrosanctum Concilium, in the Paulist series, Rediscovering Vatican II. Her most recent book, A Pastoral Commentary on Desiderio Desideravi, will be released by Liturgical Press in the fall. A native of New York City, Rita lives in Mount Vernon, NY.

The discussion will be followed by a Q&A session. Refreshments will be served. Masks are optional. Any questions, please email Marina Cardillo at: mammadoc@gmail.com.

Presenter and moderator: Raymond LaManna, professor at the Zicklin School of Business at Baruch College. Ray holds advanced degrees in theology, psychology and adult education.

"Let's Talk About It: Speaker Series" was created by St. Pius X Church in response to a parish survey. Parishioners requested more discussions and transparency on difficult topics.

FOOD PANTRY:

The winter holidays are over and most of us have wonderful memories of time spent with family. Hopefully what we don't have is the worry about where our next meal is coming from. The working poor we regularly support struggle every day to feed their families a decent meal.

A terrible strain is being put on food pantries all over the world. People who have never had to resort to this kind of help are doing it for the first time because of various hardships. PLEASE continue to bring in canned and packaged food items and put in the Food Pantry closet in the Narthex.

If you are unable to shop for or carry heavy groceries, a gift card to ShopRite for fresh produce or a check in any amount made out to - Church of St. Pius X may be mailed to:

Church of St. Pius X
Attn: Elizabeth Pirinea
91 Secor Rd.
Scarsdale, NY 10583

Please note in the memo section that this is a donation to the food pantry.

Thank you for your continued generosity!
