Saint Peter Damian (988 – February 22, 1072), February 21

Maybe because he was orphaned and had been treated shabbily by one of his brothers, Peter Damian was very good to the poor. It was the ordinary thing for him to have a poor person or two with him at table and he liked to minister personally to their needs.

Peter escaped poverty and the neglect of his own brother when his other brother, who was archpriest of Ravenna, took him under his wing. His brother sent him to good schools and Peter became a professor.

Already in those days, Peter was very strict with himself. He wore a hair shirt under his clothes, fasted rigorously and spent many hours in prayer. Soon, he decided to leave his teaching and give himself completely to prayer with the Benedictines of the reform of Saint Romuald at Fonte Avellana. Peter was so eager to pray and slept so little that he soon suffered from severe insomnia. He found he had to use some prudence in taking care of himself. When he was not praying, he studied the Bible.

The abbot commanded that when he died Peter should succeed him ... Pope Stephen IX made Peter the cardinal-bishop of Ostia. He worked hard to wipe out simony—the buying of church offices—and encouraged his priests to observe celibacy and urged even the diocesan clergy to live together and maintain scheduled prayer and religious observance. He wished to restore primitive discipline among religious and priests ...

He wrote many letters. Some 170 are extant. We also have 53 of his sermons and seven lives, or biographies, that he wrote. He preferred examples and stories rather than theory in his writings...

Lenten Fast and Abstinence

During the Season of Lent, the Church urges all the Faithful to reflect a spirit of penance in their daily life through fast and abstinence.

FASTING requires that only one full meal be taken per day. Two other smaller meals may be taken during the day to maintain physical strength, but these two meals together should not equal a full meal in quantity. Fasting obliges all those who have reached the age of 18 through 59. Those not specifically obliged to fast are encouraged to join in the discipline to the extent they are able.

ABSTINENCE prohibits individuals from eating meat on a particular day. Abstinence obliges all those who have reached the age of 14 and throughout life. ASH WEDNESDAY and GOOD FRIDAY are days of fast and abstinence. Fridays in Lent are days of abstinence.

Let's Talk About It: SPEAKER SERIES

Living the Legacy of Vatican II in Today's Parish: Prospects and Challenges

ST. PIUS X CHURCH
PARISH HALL
SCARSDALE, NY
Ramsey Road, ramp entrance or through school lobby/ parking lot on Secor Road.

SUNDAY, MARCH 5, 1:30 P.M.
THIS EVENT IS FREE.

Sixty years after Vatican II, we are now living in "the era of the heirs" to the Council. How are we "living the legacy" of Vatican II at this time in history, and how can today's parish carry forward that legacy creatively as we walk into the future together?

Rita Ferrone is an award-winning writer and frequent speaker on issues of liturgy and church renewal in the Roman Catholic tradition. Coming from a background in parish and diocesan ministry, she is currently a contributing writer to Commonweal magazine and Give Us This Day. She is the author of several books, including Liturgy: Sacrosanctum Concilium, in the Paulist series, Rediscovering Vatican II. Her most recent book, A Pastoral Commentary on Desiderio Desideravi, will be released by Liturgical Press in the fall. A native of New York City, Rita lives in Mount Vernon, NY.

The discussion will be followed by a Q&A session. Refreshments will be served. Masks are optional. Any questions, please email Marina Cardillo at: mammadoc@gmail.com.

Presenter and moderator: Raymond LaManna, professor at the Zicklin School of Business at Baruch College. Ray holds advanced degrees in theology, psychology and adult education.

"Let's Talk About It: Speaker Series" was created by St. Pius X Church in response to a parish survey. Parishioners requested more discussions and transparency on difficult topics.
