Saints & Special Observances

Sunday: 6th Sunday of Easter
Monday: St. Isidore the Farmer
Thursday: The Ascension of the Lord, St. John 1
Saturday: St. Bernadine of Siena

Saint Isidore the Farmer (1070 – May 15, 1130), May 15

Isidore has become the patron of farmers and rural communities. In particular, he is the patron of Madrid, Spain, and of the United States National Rural Life Conference.

When he was barely old enough to wield a hoe, Isidore entered the service of John de Vergas, a wealthy landowner from Madrid, and worked faithfully on his estate outside the city for the rest of his life. He married a young woman as simple and upright as himself who also became a saint—Maria de la Cabeza. They had one son, who died as a child.

Isidore had deep religious instincts. He rose early in the morning to go to church and spent many a holiday devoutly visiting the churches of Madrid and surrounding areas. All day long, as he walked behind the plow, he communed with God. His devotion, one might say, became a problem, for his fellow workers sometimes complained that he often showed up late because of lingering in church too long.

He was known for his love of the poor, and there are accounts of Isidore's supplying them miraculously with food. He had a great concern for the proper treatment of animals.

He died May 15, 1130, and was declared a saint in 1622, with Saints Ignatius of Loyola, Francis Xavier, Teresa of Avila, and Philip Neri. Together, the group is known in Spain as "the five saints."

Reflection

Many implications can be found in a simple laborer achieving sainthood: Physical labor has dignity; sainthood does not stem from status; contemplation does not depend on learning; the simple life is conducive to holiness and happiness . . . Perhaps the truth which emerges is this: If you have your spiritual self in order, your earthly commitments will fall into order also...

Dear Padre

May 14, 2023

If the Catholic Church recognizes baptisms from other Christian denominations, why not confirmations?

Baptism signs us with an indelible mark. It defines our character and can never be repeated. A baptism is always held to be valid if a person is baptized with water using the Trinitarian formula (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1256). If a priest is unsure of the validity of a person's baptism, he would baptize the person conditionally, recognizing the earlier baptism if it happened and was valid. The minister of baptism is usually an ordained minister, but in necessity anyone can baptize, including a non-Christian, if the person intends what the Church intends.

Confirmation also leaves an indelible mark, as does holy orders, and they also cannot be repeated. What makes confirmation different from baptism is that the minister of confirmation is ordinarily the bishop because this expresses the apostolic unity of the Church (CCC 1312). If someone had been confirmed in a Church that has apostolic succession, their confirmation would be considered valid, and the person wouldn't be reconfirmed.

Most Christian churches have a common understanding of what the sacrament of baptism is, but while other churches might have communion, confirmation, and ordination, their celebration of those sacraments may not include all the requirements necessary for the Catholic Church to consider them valid. ●

He is currently working from home and is looking forward to continue serving his church and community as a member of the Parish Council.

NEW MINISTRY IN 2023

Children's Ministry: Sharing Our Gifts to Seniors

We are planning a new ministry at the Church of St. Pius X! We have a very talented group of religious education students. We also have longtime and elderly parishioners with vibrant life experiences and gifts of their own. We would like to bring these two groups together for an enriching intergenerational ministry. Stay tuned to hear how your child can volunteer to visit a homebound parishioner. Our students will visit and play music, read to, or just provide a connection for this group that built much of what we have today! Feel free to contact Mary Leptak at marytheresa2013@gmail.com for more information on this wonderful ministry of bridging the young and the old of our parish community.
