Saints & Special Observances

Sunday:	The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
Tuesday:	St. Anthony of Padua
Friday:	The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus
Saturday:	The Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Saint Anthony of Padua (1195 – June 13, 1231), June 13

The gospel call to leave everything and follow Christ was the rule of Anthony's life. Over and over again, God called him to something new in his plan. Every time Anthony responded with renewed zeal and self-sacrificing to serve his Lord Jesus more completely.

... He decided to join the Augustinians in Lisbon, giving up a future of wealth and power to be a servant of God. Later when the bodies of the first Franciscan martyrs went through the Portuguese city where he was stationed, he was again filled with an intense longing to be one of those closest to Jesus himself ...

So Anthony entered the Franciscan Order and set out to preach to the Moors. But an illness prevented him from achieving that goal. He went to Italy and was stationed in a small hermitage where he spent most of his time praying, reading the Scriptures and doing menial tasks.

The call of God came again at an ordination where no one was prepared to speak ... Anthony's sermon was astounding to those who expected an unprepared speech and knew not the Spirit's power to give people words.

Recognized as a great man of prayer and a great Scripture and theology scholar, Anthony became the first friar to teach theology to the other friars. Soon he was called from that post to preach to the Albigenians in France ...

After he led the friars in northern Italy for three years, he made his headquarters in the city of Padua. He resumed his preaching and began writing sermon notes to help other preachers. In the spring of 1231 Anthony withdrew to a friary at Camposampiero where he had a sort of treehouse built as a hermitage. There he prayed and prepared for death.

On June 13, he became very ill and asked to be taken back to Padua, where he died after receiving the last sacraments. Anthony was canonized less than a year later and named a Doctor of the Church in 1946.

Dear Padre

June 11, 2023

I'm eighty-one. When I received first Communion, the nuns told me not to chew the holy Eucharist, but to let it melt in my mouth. Is it wrong to chew it?

It is permitted to chew the host or to let it dissolve in your mouth. The hosts today must be unleavened and made only of flour and water, making it easier for some communicants to dissolve it in their mouths. Unleavened bread doesn't mold or spoil and is more suitable than leavened bread for exposition and adoration. However, for nearly 800 years, the Church used leavened wheat bread for the Eucharist before unleavened wheat bread was introduced into the Roman rite. Communicants would have had to chew the Eucharist before the modern waferlike host evolved.

Your first Communion instruction on the proper way to consume the Eucharist was an effort to instill in you a deep reverence for the Real Presence of Christ. This profound respect for our Lord in the form of consecrated bread and wine is still desired by the Church. For example, at Mass the priest "reverently consumes the Body of Christ" and "reverently partakes of the Blood of Christ" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 158). Similarly, "when receiving Holy Communion, the communicant bows his or her head before the Sacrament as a gesture of reverence and receives the Body of the Lord from the minister" (GIRM 160). Today's Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is a special day for us to remember Jesus' gift of his own body that we might be nourished and strengthened for this life's journey. ●

NEW MINISTRY IN 2023

Children's Ministry: Sharing Our Gifts to Seniors

We are planning a new ministry at the Church of St. Pius X!

We have a very talented group of religious education students. We also have longtime and elderly parishioners with vibrant life experiences and gifts of their own. We would like to bring these two groups together for an enriching intergenerational ministry. Stay tuned to hear how your child can volunteer to visit a homebound parishioner. Our students will visit and play music, read to, or just provide a connection for this group that built much of what we have today! Feel free to contact Mary Leptak at marytheresa2013@gmail.com for more information on this wonderful ministry of bridging the young and the old of our parish community.

Lost & Found

We have a Lost & Found box in the Narthex closet closest to the school lobby. Things that have been around a long time will be discarded or re-purposed. However there are always some new things that get added to the box. If you or your child have recently left anything behind, please check the box to see whether it has been turned in. Thanks!

Family Mass Ministry Sign-Up

Dear Parents,

We are thrilled that our 10:30 am Family Mass is growing and your children are participating in the Mass. Many children would like to volunteer to pass the collection basket during Mass or distribute the bulletin after Mass.

In order to allow as many children as possible to volunteer, we created a sign-up page. If your child/children would like to volunteer, please click on the link below or scan the QR code and sign him/her/them up for a specific Mass once a month to either pass the collection basket or hand out the bulletin.

Thank you for your untiring support of our parish and its ministries. God Bless.

Family Hospitality Table

Hospitality after the 10:30 am family Mass on Sundays has become an important ministry at St. Pius X. It allows parishioners to gather after Mass as a community to chat with friends and to welcome new families while enjoying a snack. We are looking for families to volunteer to host the Hospitality Table one Sunday during the year. We are most grateful for the kindness and generosity of the host families without whom this ministry would not be possible.

Scan the QR code to sign up:

If you have any questions, please contact Ellen at the Religious Education Office at (914) 472-5594 or send an email: stpiusxreled@yahoo.com
