Saint Augustine of Hippo (November 13, 354 – August 28, 430), August 28

A Christian at 33, a priest at 36, a bishop at 41: Many people are familiar with the biographical sketch of Augustine of Hippo, sinner turned saint. But really to get to know the man is a rewarding experience.

There quickly surfaces the intensity with which he lived his life, whether his path led away from or toward God. The tears of his mother, the instructions of Ambrose and, most of all, God himself speaking to him in the Scriptures, redirected Augustine's love of life to a life of love.

Having been so deeply immersed in creature-pride of life in his early days and having drunk deeply of its bitter dregs, it is not surprising that Augustine should have turned, with a holy fierceness, against the many demon-thrusts rampant in his day. His times were truly decadent: politically, socially, morally. He was both feared and loved, like the Master. The perennial criticism leveled against him: a fundamental rigorism.

In his day, Augustine providentially fulfilled the office of prophet. Like Jeremiah and other greats, he was hard-pressed but could not keep quiet. "I say to myself, I will not mention him, I will speak in his name no more. But then it becomes like fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones; I grow weary holding it in, I cannot endure it" (Jeremiah 20:9).

Reflection

Augustine is still acclaimed and condemned in our day. He is a prophet for today, trumpeting the need to scrap escapisms and stand face-to-face with personal responsibility and dignity.

FATHER JAMES MARTIN, SJ BUILDING BRIDGES: REACHING OUT TO LGBTQ+ CATHOLICS

ST. PIUS X CHURCH
PARISH HALL
SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 17th,
1:30PM

The talk follows the concelebration of the 12PM
Mass at the St. Pius X Church and a light lunch in the Parish Hall.

The Synod on Synodality is a three-year process of listening and dialogue. In advance of its first session, which will take place in Rome in October 2023, the need for the Catholic Church to be more inclusive of minority groups, such as the LGBTQ+ Catholic community, has emerged. Join us to talk with Father James Martin, SJ about how to build a bridge to overcome the chasm between the official response from our Church and her LGBTQ+ faithful members. Father James Martin SJ is a Jesuit Priest, editor-at-large of the Jesuit magazine America and consultant to the Vatican's Secretariat for Communications. He has been appointed by Pope Francis as a member of the upcoming Synod on Synodality. (<https://www.americamagazine.org/politics-society/2023/07/11/jim-martin-syond-pope-lgbtq-voices-245668>)

Father Martin is the founder of Outreach, a group that promotes inclusivity and welcome for LGBTQ Catholics in the church. He is the author of many books, including Building a Bridge: How the Catholic Church and the LGBT Community Can Enter Into a Relationship of Respect, Compassion, and Sensitivity. His latest, Come Forth: The Promise of Jesus's Greatest Miracle, will be released in September. A frequent commentator in the media about issues of religion and spirituality, he is known for his appearances on The Colbert Report and his robust social media presence.

This is a free event, however, to plan seating and food, we kindly ask you to sign up by scanning the QR Code or visiting this site: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0f4baea723a7f94-father#/>

Dear Parishioners,

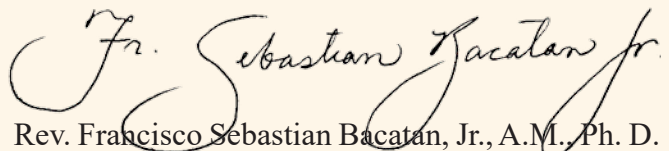

Ten years ago, we brought the dream of our parish's founders to fruition by completing the renovation of our Church – a renovation that has significantly facilitated our growth and vibrancy and helped us to spread our faith. As good stewards, we must periodically inspect, maintain and repair our facilities and grounds. Consistent with this responsibility, we have determined that certain projects (for which we have received competitive bids and have chosen contractors based on their pricing and reputation) need to be addressed.

We thank the many parishioners who have donated already towards our Church of St. Pius X 2023 – 2024 Maintenance Projects and ask those parishioners who have not donated to consider sponsoring or contributing towards an item noted below that still needs funding:

- | | |
|---|---------------|
| •Seal coat and crack seal the parking lot | $14,955 |
| •Replace a portion of the fencing around the field and add new bollards with concrete footings to prevent cars from hitting the fence | 10,995 |
| •Replace four (4) of the school's air conditioning systems with dual heating and a/c units (including related wiring and piping) | (each) 16,000 |
| •Check all fire and carbon monoxide detectors, smoke beam detectors and fire alarm pull handles in the church and school | 3,995 |
| •Repair fire alarm pull handles, beam detectors, smoke detectors and upgrade the carbon monoxide detectors. | 6,250 |

The vibrancy of our parish is dependent on your continued support. Thank you for all you have done and continue to do for our Parish.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Rev. Francisco Sebastian Bacatan, Jr., A.M., Ph. D.

What is a Catechist? Volunteer to Share our Catholic Faith

The word catechist comes from a Greek word meaning "to echo." Catechists echo the Word of God to our parish children. They come from all walks of life and all ages: women, men, confirmed teenagers, parents, grandparents, singles, and religious. Catechists are ordinary people, just like you, who generously volunteer their time to share our Catholic faith, values, and traditions with our youngest generation of Christians. They are positive role models who help children grow in faith and spirituality. Their gift has tremendous value... because through their words and actions, the message of Christ continues to spread throughout the world.

The Religious Education needs volunteer Catechist/Teacher/Assistants/Hall Monitors. For more details, please call Religious Education Office or email: stpiusxreled@yahoo.com
