Saints & Special Observances

Sunday: Twenty-Second Sunday
in Ordinary Time
Monday: Labor Day
Friday: The Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Saturday: St. Peter Claver

Saint Peter Claver (June 26, 1581 – September 8, 1654), September 9

A native of Spain, young Jesuit Peter Claver left his homeland forever in 1610 to be a missionary in the colonies of the New World. He sailed into Cartagena [and] was ordained there in 1615.

By this time the slave trade had been established in the Americas for nearly 100 years, and Cartagena was a chief center for it. Ten thousand slaves poured into the port each year after crossing the Atlantic from West Africa under conditions so foul and inhuman that an estimated one-third of the passengers died in transit...

Peter Claver's predecessor, Jesuit Father Alfonso de Sandoval, had devoted himself to the service of the slaves for 40 years before Claver arrived to continue his work, declaring himself "the slave of the Negroes forever."

As soon as a slave ship entered the port ... Claver plunged in among them with medicines, food, bread, brandy, lemons, and tobacco. With the help of interpreters he gave basic instructions and assured his brothers and sisters of their human dignity and God's love. During the 40 years of his ministry, Claver instructed and baptized an estimated 300,000 slaves.

Fr. Claver's apostolate extended beyond his care for slaves. He became a moral force, the apostle of Cartagena. He preached in the city square, gave missions to sailors and traders as well as country missions, during which he avoided, when possible, the hospitality of the planters and owners and lodged in the slave quarters instead.

After four years of sickness, which forced the saint to remain inactive and largely neglected, he died on September 8, 1654. The city magistrates, who had previously frowned at his solicitude for the black outcasts, ordered that he should be buried at public expense and with great pomp.

Peter Claver was canonized in 1888, and Pope Leo XIII declared him the worldwide patron of missionary work among black slaves.

FATHER JAMES MARTIN, SJ
BUILDING BRIDGES:
REACHING OUT TO LGBTQ+ CATHOLICS

ST. PIUS X CHURCH PARISH HALL

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 17th, 1:30PM

The talk follows the concelebration of the 12PM Mass at the St. Pius X Church and a light lunch in the Parish Hall.

The Synod on Synodality is a three-year process of listening and dialogue. In advance of its first session, which will take place in Rome in October 2023, the need for the Catholic Church to be more inclusive of minority groups, such as the LGBTQ+ Catholic community, has emerged. Join us to talk with Father James Martin, SJ about how to build a bridge to overcome the chasm between the official response from our Church and her LGBTQ+ faithful members.

Father James Martin SJ is a Jesuit Priest, editor-at-large of the Jesuit magazine America and consultant to the Vatican's Secretariat for Communications. He has been appointed by Pope Francis as a member of the upcoming Synod on Synodality (<https://bitly.ws/TpLv>) Father Martin is the founder of Outreach, a group that promotes inclusivity and welcome for LGBTQ Catholics in the church. He is the author of many books, including Building a Bridge: How the Catholic Church and the LGBT Community Can Enter Into a Relationship of Respect, Compassion, and Sensitivity. His latest, Come Forth: The Promise of Jesus's Greatest Miracle, will be released in September. A frequent commentator in the media about issues of religion and spirituality, he is known for his appearances on The Colbert Report and his robust social media presence.

This is a free event, however, to plan seating and food, we kindly ask you to sign up by scanning the QR Code or visiting this site:

August 29, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

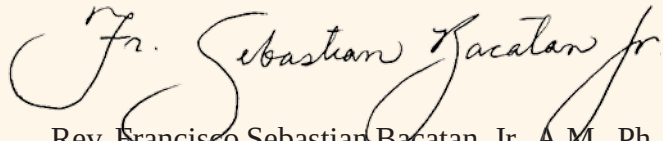

Ten years ago, we brought the dream of our parish's founders to fruition by completing the renovation of our Church – a renovation that has significantly facilitated our growth and vibrancy and helped us to spread our faith. As good stewards, we must periodically inspect, maintain and repair our facilities and grounds. Consistent with this responsibility, we have determined that certain projects (for which we have received competitive bids and have chosen contractors based on their pricing and reputation) need to be addressed.

We thank the many parishioners who have donated already towards our Church of St. Pius X 2023 – 2024 Maintenance Projects and ask those parishioners who have not donated to consider sponsoring or contributing towards an item noted below that still needs funding:

- | | |
|---|---------------|
| •Replace a portion of the fencing around the field and add new bollards with concrete footings to prevent cars from hitting the fence | 10,995 |
| •Replace four (4) of the school's air conditioning systems with dual heating and a/c units (including related wiring and piping) | (each) 16,000 |
| •Check all fire and carbon monoxide detectors, smoke beam detectors and fire alarm pull handles in the church and school | 3,995 |
| •Repair fire alarm pull handles, beam detectors, smoke detectors and upgrade the carbon monoxide detectors. | 6,250 |

The vibrancy of our parish is dependent on your continued support. Thank you for all you have done and continue to do for our Parish.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Rev. Francisco Sebastian Bacatan, Jr., A.M., Ph. D.
Pastor

Mission Appeal

We welcome Fr. David Adiletta, O.P., who will be with us at all Masses on September 2-3 on behalf of the Propagation of the Faith -Missionary Cooperative Plan (Mission Appeal). Father David will preach on behalf of the Dominican Friars in East Africa and will share the good works of the friars in the mission, where he served for nine years. The Dominican friars preach the Word of God and are engaged in evangelization, while working with the poor in underserved areas of Kenya. They and the young men called to enter the priesthood as Dominican Friars depend on the support of the faithful here in the United States. The second collection this weekend is to support the missionary works around the world, especially the mission works of the Dominican Friars in East Africa. Checks should be made payable to: Church of St. Pius X with memo to Mission Appeal. We will forward the funds to the Archdiocese of New York Propagation of Faith Office, who will then send it to Dominican Friars. Your generosity is appreciated.

ENLARGE THE SPACE OF YOUR TENT

During the first listening and consultation phase of the Synod, a critical and urgent theme that surfaced from listening to millions of people around the globe is the need of a more inclusive, open and welcoming Church to women, youth, LGBTQ+ and all that feel neglected and excluded. Let's enlarge our tent to be a wider space of communion, a place of participation, and a foundation for mission, and to be a Church capable of radical inclusion, shared belonging, and deep hospitality according to the teachings of Jesus.

What is a Catechist? Volunteer to Share our Catholic Faith

The word catechist comes from a Greek word meaning "to echo." Catechists echo the Word of God to our parish children. They come from all walks of life and all ages: women, men, confirmed teenagers, parents, grandparents, singles, and religious. Catechists are ordinary people, just like you, who generously volunteer their time to share our Catholic faith, values, and traditions with our youngest generation of Christians. They are positive role models who help children grow in faith and spirituality. Their gift has tremendous value... because through their words and actions, the message of Christ continues to spread throughout the world.

The Religious Education needs volunteer Catechist/Teacher/Assistants/Hall Monitors.
