Saint Vincent de Paul (1580 – September 27, 1660), September 27

The deathbed confession of a dying servant opened Vincent de Paul's eyes to the crying spiritual needs of the peasantry of France. This seems to have been a crucial moment in the life of the man from a small farm in Gascony, France, who had become a priest with little more ambition than to have a comfortable life.

The Countess de Gondî—whose servant he had helped—persuaded her husband to endow and support a group of able and zealous missionaries who would work among poor tenant farmers and country people in general. Vincent [became] the leader of what is now known as the Congregation of the Mission, or the Vincentians. These priests, with vows of poverty, chastity, obedience, and stability, were to devote themselves entirely to the people in smaller towns and villages.

Later, Vincent established confraternities of charity for the spiritual and physical relief of the poor and sick of each parish. From these, with the help of Saint Louise de Marillac, came the Daughters of Charity, “whose convent is the sickroom, whose chapel is the parish church, whose cloister is the streets of the city.” He organized [collections] for his missionary projects, founded several hospitals, collected relief funds for the victims of war, and ransomed over 1,200 galley slaves from North Africa ... He was a pioneer in clerical training and was instrumental in establishing seminaries.

Most remarkably, Vincent was by temperament a very irascible person—even his friends admitted it. He said that except for the grace of God he would have been “hard and repulsive, rough and cross.” But he ... very sensitive to the needs of others.

Pope Leo XIII made him the patron of all charitable societies. ... The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, [was] founded in 1833 by his admirer Blessed Frédéric Ozanam.

Dear Padre

September 24, 2023

When can I take photographs in church? During my niece's baptism, I was told to put my camera away. We have a confirmation and a wedding coming up, and I don't want to get in trouble again.

Reverence and courtesy are the issues here. Reverence keeps in mind that what is real about baptism and all the sacraments does not come out in photos. Courtesy notes that other folks are trying to enter into the awe and joy of the mystery, and people taking photographs can get in the way or distract.

Parishes differ in rules and regulations. Many parishes prohibit the taking of pictures. Certainly taking flash pictures is annoying in a way that taking available-light photos is not. But even with nonflash pictures, the photographer is trying to get around people and into a good spot.

Weddings call for photos from approved photographers. In most United States cultures, photos at funeral Masses are out of place. However, there are exceptions, such as the situation of an infirm woman who was unable to attend her sister's funeral. She was extremely upset until her niece thought to record it with her phone. The pastor had no problem with this solution.

No matter what the situation, it is always best to check with the parish office before the event. If it is permitted, get a few good pictures and then be sure to close your eyes in prayer so you can see what is really going on. ●

Church of Saint Pius X

The latest topic of the St. Pius X Speaker Series “Let’s Talk About It” was held on Sunday, September 17 with a wonderful talk by Fr. James Martin, S.J. The very well-attended session took place in the Parish Hall after Fr. Martin concelebrated Mass with Fr. Sebastian. Fr. Martin spoke about the Synod on Synodality, the upcoming meeting in Rome which Pope Francis has organized to discuss important issues, such as the need for the Catholic Church to be more inclusive to minority groups including the LGBTQ+ Catholic community. Fr. Martin cited several well-known gospels to show how Jesus always welcomed the marginalized people he encountered, and answered many questions posed by the audience.

Fr. Martin’s new book “Come Forth: The Promise of Jesus’s Greatest Miracle,” leads the reader through profound reflections of Jesus’s lessons on love, family, sadness, frustration, fear, anger, freedom, and joy. Thanks to Michael Cosgrove for inviting Father Martin, Marina Cardillo for organizing this very special program, Althea Fusco for helping with setup and clean up, and The Scarsdale Police Department for their presence. To know more about Father Martin’s ministry, please refer to www.outreach.faith. A recording of the event at St. Pius X Church is available here: <https://fb.watch/n8L7Y2OOiC/?mibextid=v7YzmG>

What is a Catechist? Volunteer to Share our Catholic Faith

The word catechist comes from a Greek word meaning "to echo." Catechists echo the Word of God to our parish children. They come from all walks of life and all ages: women, men, confirmed teenagers, parents, grandparents, singles, and religious. Catechists are ordinary people, just like you, who generously volunteer their time to share our Catholic faith, values, and traditions with our youngest generation of Christians. They are positive role models who help children grow in faith and spirituality. Their gift has tremendous value... because through their words and actions, the message of Christ continues to spread throughout the world.

The Religious Education needs volunteer Catechist/Teacher/Assistants/Hall Monitors.
