Saint John XXIII (November 25, 1881 – June 3, 1963), October 11

Although few people had as great an impact on the 20th century as Pope John XXIII, he avoided the limelight as much as possible ... noted that his “ordinariness” seems one of his most remarkable qualities.

The firstborn son of a farming family in Sotto il Monte, near Bergamo in northern Italy, Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli was always proud of his down-to-earth roots. In Bergamo’s diocesan seminary, he joined the Secular Franciscan Order ...

His service as a stretcher-bearer for the Italian army during World War I gave him a firsthand knowledge of war ... In 1925, he became a papal diplomat, serving first in Bulgaria, then in Turkey, and finally in France. During World War II, he became well acquainted with Orthodox Church leaders. With the help of Germany’s ambassador to Turkey, Archbishop Roncalli helped save an estimated 24,000 Jewish people.

Named a cardinal and appointed patriarch of Venice in 1953, he was finally a residential bishop. A month short of entering his 78th year, Cardinal Roncalli was elected pope, taking the name John ... Pope John took his work very seriously but not himself. His wit soon became proverbial, and he began meeting with political and religious leaders from around the world. In 1962, he was involved in efforts to resolve the Cuban missile crisis.

His most famous encyclicals were Mother and Teacher (1961) and Peace on Earth (1963). Pope John XXIII enlarged the membership in the College of Cardinals and made it more international ... On his deathbed, Pope John said: “It is not that the gospel has changed; it is that we have begun to understand it better. Those who have lived as long as I have...were enabled to compare different cultures and traditions, and know that the moment has come to discern the signs of the times, to seize the opportunity and to look far ahead.”

Dear Padre

October 8, 2023

How is an icon different from a regular painting of a saint?

Generally, icon means a symbol or image. In the Church, it refers to an image depicting Bible stories or holy people. “Icons express in images the same Gospel message that Scripture communicates by words” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1160).

Even though an icon is an image created with paints, icons are written, not painted. Icon writing, called iconography, is a vocation as well as a talent. The difference between a painter and an iconographer is that iconographers follow strict rules and standards set forth in Eastern Church canon law and Christian tradition. Rooted in God’s word, icons are rich in symbolism. The colors, gestures, and shapes speak spiritually to invite us to pray and worship.

Icons can be written on almost any surface, but historically most were written on wood and had a gold-leaf background. One example of this type of icon is Our Mother of Perpetual Help, which is believed to have been written in the fifteenth century. Pope Pius IX gave it to the Redemptorists in 1865, telling the order to “make her known throughout the world.” It now hangs in the Church of Sant’ Alfonso in Rome.

To see the original icon in real time and learn more about icons, please visit omphicon.org. ●

St. Pius X Women's Retreat

Our first Women's Retreat at St. Pius X definitely proved to be a wonderful, sweet and meaningful time of connection for our group. An initial fun bond activity gave us the opportunity to share life stories, laughs, tears, and get to know each other. This was followed by readings with music, time alone with Jesus in silence and personal reflections. A Mass, celebrated by Father Raymond, concluded the event. Many thanks to Laeh Yang-DiPietro for organizing and leading the retreat.

Seasons of Hope

Are you grieving the loss of a loved one?

The Church of St. Pius X is offering a six session, faith based Catholic series for those in mourning. The Seasons of Hope series begins on Thursday, October 26th, and will meet for six Thursdays through December 14th, (no sessions on All Souls Day, 11/2, and Thanksgiving, 11/23). Sessions run from 7:00 – 8:30 pm and meetings are held in the St. Pius X Parish Pavilion. Pre-registration is required. Register here: <https://shorturl.at/rzJP9>

Adult Bible Study

Thursdays from 7-8pm via Zoom. Scan the QR Code for the Zoom link.

Ministry Service

Pastoral Care

The Ministry of Pastoral Care seeks to integrate the sick as well as homebound or hospitalized parishioners of the Church of Saint Pius X into the spiritual community and address their needs. Any adult Catholic who has received the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Holy Communion and Confirmation) who wishes to serve and is comfortable bringing Communion to the sick and/or elderly will be trained. If you are interested in participating in our Pastoral Care Ministry, please contact Debra Lupardo-Belotti at 914-714-8490 (debralupardo@gmail.com), or the Parish office at 914-725-2755 to speak with one of our priests or staff members.

Join the St. Pius X Choir

Our choir season is about to begin, and we are welcoming people of all musical backgrounds to join the St. Pius X Choir. Whether you've sung in choirs for many years or singing in a choir is something you would like to try for the first time, you are welcome. The choir meets to rehearse from 7:30 pm to 9:00 pm on Thursday evenings and sings at either the Saturday 5pm Mass or the Sunday Noon Mass from mid-September through early June. Our first rehearsal of the season will be Thursday, Sep. 14. If you are interested in singing with the choir, please contact Director of Music Ministries, David Schmidt at StPiusXMusic@gmail.com.

Food Pantry

Summer has flown by but the food insecure will always be with us. The working poor constantly struggle to feed their families.

PLEASE continue to bring in canned or packaged food items whenever you attend Mass.

If you are unable to shop for or carry heavy groceries, a check in any amount made out to - Church of St. Pius X may be mailed to:

Church of St. Pius X, Attn: Parish Office
91 Secor Rd. , Scarsdale, NY 10583

Please note in the memo section that this is a donation to the food pantry.

Thank you for your continued generosity!

Dolores Brett, dbrett9@gmail.com

Family Hospitality Table

Hospitality after the 10:30 am family Mass on Sundays has become an important ministry at St. Pius X. It allows parishioners to gather after Mass as a community to chat with friends and to welcome new families while enjoying a snack. We are looking for families to volunteer to host the Hospitality Table one Sunday during the year. We are most grateful for the kindness and generosity of the host families without whom this ministry would not be possible.

What is a Catechist? Volunteer to Share our Catholic Faith

The word catechist comes from a Greek word meaning "to echo." Catechists echo the Word of God to our parish children. They come from all walks of life and all ages: women, men, confirmed teenagers, parents, grandparents, singles, and religious. Catechists are ordinary people, just like you, who generously volunteer their time to share our Catholic faith, values, and traditions with our youngest generation of Christians. They are positive role models who help children grow in faith and spirituality. Their gift has tremendous value... because through their words and actions, the message of Christ continues to spread throughout the world.

The Religious Education needs volunteer Catechist/Teacher/Assistants/Hall Monitors. For more details, please call Religious Education Office or email: stpiusxreled@yahoo.com
