St. Cecilia, November 22 Patron Saint of Musicians

Although Cecilia is one of the most famous of the Roman martyrs, the familiar stories about her are apparently not founded on authentic material. There is no trace of honor being paid her in early times. A fragmentary inscription of the late fourth century refers to a church named after her, and her feast was celebrated at least in 545.

According to legend, Cecilia was a young Christian of high rank betrothed to a Roman named Valerian. Through her influence Valerian was converted, and was martyred along with his brother. The legend about Cecilia's death says that after being struck three times on the neck with a sword, she lived for three days, and asked the pope to convert her home into a church.

Since the time of the Renaissance she has usually been portrayed with a viola or a small organ.

Comment:

Like any good Christian, Cecilia sang in her heart, and sometimes with her voice. She has become a symbol of the Church's conviction that good music is an integral part of the liturgy, of greater value to the Church than any other art. In the present confused state of Church music, it may be useful to recall some words of Vatican II (see below).

Quote:

"Liturgical action is given a more noble form when sacred rites are solemnized in song, with the assistance of sacred ministers and the active participation of the people ... Religious singing by the people is to be skillfully fostered, so that in devotions and sacred exercises, as also during liturgical services, the voices of the faithful may ring out" (Vatican II, Constitution on the Liturgy, 112-118).

Thanksgiving Prayer

This Thanksgiving, let those of us who have much and those of us who have little gather at the welcoming table of the Lord.

At this blessed feast, may rich and poor alike remember that we are called to serve one another and to walk together in God's gracious world.

With thankful hearts, we praise our God who like a loving parent denies us no good thing.

Amen.

Happy
THANKSGIVING

Dear Parishioners,

Ten years ago, we finished renovating our church, making it grow and spread our faith. We take care of our church and surroundings and this month we completed important projects, like installing new signs, lighting and landscaping, and planting trees (See pictures).

Thanks to those who supported our 2023–2024 Maintenance Projects. Your help made a big difference. If you haven't contributed yet, please think about donating to keep our church well-maintained.

Your support is crucial for our parish's legacy and a lively future.

Thank you,

Father Sebastian
