Saint John Neumann (1811 – 1860), January 5

John Neumann was born in what is now the Czech Republic. After studying in Prague, he came to New York at 25 and was ordained a priest. He did missionary work in New York until he was 29, when he joined the Redemptorists and became its first member to profess vows in the United States. He continued missionary work in Maryland, Virginia and Ohio, where he became popular with the Germans.

At 41, as bishop of Philadelphia, he organized the parochial school system into a diocesan one, increasing the number of pupils almost twentyfold within a short time.

Gifted with outstanding organizing ability, he drew into the city many teaching communities of sisters and the Christian Brothers. During his brief assignment as vice provincial for the Redemptorists, he placed them in the forefront of the parochial movement.

Well-known for his holiness and learning, spiritual writing and preaching, on October 13, 1963, John Neumann became the first American bishop to be beatified. Canonized in 1977, he is buried in St. Peter the Apostle Church in Philadelphia.

Dear Padre

December 24, 2023

The Bible talks about Jesus' brothers and sisters. Is there scriptural proof that Jesus was Mary's only child?

The Catholic Church's position is that Mary had only one child; her son called Jesus. Yet there are at least ten scriptural references to "the brothers of Jesus" or to his "sisters" (see Matthew 13:55–56, Mark 6:3, and Luke 8:19–21).

The difficulty is that the meaning of the term "brothers" (translated from the Greek adelphos) isn't restricted to the sharing of a parent. On the contrary, it may not only refer to other relatives, including cousins, but also to close relationships, such as disciples. This is not unlike how we might refer to "brothers in arms" as those who fought in a war together, or a religious order of brothers or sisters.

Recall, too, that Jesus and his disciples spoke Aramaic, and there is no equivalent for the meaning of "cousins" as we know it in that language. Instead, the word for brother or sister was used when referring to cousins. Thus, when St. Jerome (circa 340–420) translated the Bible from Hebrew into Church Latin, he considered "the brothers of Jesus" as cousins, not siblings. After all, it would have been the rightful responsibility of these male relatives of Jesus to take care of Mary when Jesus died. Yet Jesus entrusts his mother to the care of his beloved disciple John (John 19:26). ●

Church of Saint Pius X

Christmas 2023

Dear Parishioners,

“You are the light of the world... your light must shine before others that they may see your good deeds...” (Matthew 5:14, 16)

As we come together to celebrate the birth of the Prince of Peace in a world filled with challenges, uncertainties, conflicts, division and suffering, it is important for us to spread the profound message of hope, love, compassion, peace and unity Jesus brought to humanity. Jesus brought hope to the disillusioned and light to those suffering in darkness. We, too, can make a difference through acts of kindness, prayer, and support for those in need.

It is impossible to ignore the turmoil in Israel and Palestine, the tensions between Ukraine and Russia and the natural disasters, economic hardships, social inequalities and countless other challenges faced by our brothers and sisters around the globe. In the face of these daunting issues, we are called to be beacons of light, hope, agents of change, and peacemakers.

Let's live the true meaning of Christmas by making a special effort to be there for one another by lending a helping hand to anyone struggling or being a source of comfort and support to the lonely or oppressed. I implore you to embody the Christmas spirit by spreading the messages of love and peace within our own church community and in the broader world.

May the light of Christ shine brightly in your hearts, and may His love guide you in all you do. I pray for your families, your loved ones, and peace in the world.

Along with Father Raymond and the entire Saint Pius X staff, I wish you a Merry Christmas filled with love, joy, and the warmth of community. May this holiday season be a time of renewed faith and hope, and may the spirit of Christmas be a source of strength and inspiration as we face the challenges of our time.

Yours faithfully in Christ,

Father Sebastian

TAXES AND GIVING AT CHRISTMAS AND YEAR'S END

Did you know that “charitable giving” is one of only a few tax provisions that was not greatly impacted by recent federal tax legislation? Many people enjoy using Christmas and year’s end as a special time to give to their favorite Catholic institutions and also positively impact their federal and state income taxes. Christmas and year end giving provides many advantages to you, the donor.

All gifts made on or before December 31 are tax deductible for the tax year in which your gift is made.

The knowledge that your gift is assisting a favorite Catholic institution and advancing the mission of the Catholic Church here on earth, celebrates the joy of Christmas by giving in the true spirit of the season. It is a last reminder to make that special gift or increased gift that you’ve wanted to make during the year.

If you are an itemizer, your gift will lessen your tax liability for the tax year in which your gift is made. If you are not an itemizer, your Christmas gift may be just the right decision to allow you to itemize and lower your tax bill (check with your tax advisor).

A “Carry Over Deduction,” depending on your age, income and the size of your gift, may enable you to “carry over” your charitable gift tax deduction to subsequent years.

For questions of specific nature, please contact your accountant, attorney or other financial professional.

Most importantly, make a return to God of your blessings at Christmas and assist our Catholic institution reach its spiritual and programmatic goals: serving God’s people and His Church here on earth.

Eucharistic Miracle of the World Exhibition

Since Carlo Acutis was beatified in 2020, he has been the subject of widespread interest across the globe. A young "computer geek" who created a website cataloguing every reported Eucharistic miracle in the World before dying of leukemia at age fifteen.

Carlo is a sign of contradiction in the modern world who serves as heroic model for today's young people - a teenager who programmed computers and enjoyed films and comics yet lived as an authentic and sincere disciple of Christ. St. Pius X church will be exhibiting the Eucharistic Miracles of the World catalogued by Carlo Acutis and approved by the Catholic Church on weekends between 01/13/2024 to 01/28/2024 to make it available for our parishioners and our community to see.

"The Eucharist manifests that the Church and the future of the human race are bound together in Christ and in no other reality. He is the one, truly lasting rock. Therefore, Christ's victory is the Christian People who believe, celebrate, and live the Eucharistic mystery" (XI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops,
