- Sunday: The Epiphany of the Lord
Friday: St. Marguerite Bourgeoys
Saturday: St. Hilary

Saint Hilary of Poitiers
(c. 315 – c. 368), January 13

This staunch defender of the divinity of Christ was a gentle and courteous man, devoted to writing some of the greatest theology on the Trinity, and was like his Master in being labeled a “disturber of the peace.” In a very troubled period in the Church, his holiness was lived out in both scholarship and controversy. He was bishop of Poitiers in France.

Raised a pagan, he was converted to Christianity when he met his God of nature in the Scriptures. His wife was still living when he was chosen, against his will, to be the bishop of Poitiers in France. He was soon taken up with battling what became the scourge of the fourth century, Arianism, which denied the divinity of Christ.

The heresy spread rapidly. Saint Jerome said “The world groaned and marveled to find that it was Arian.” When Emperor Constantius ordered all the bishops of the West to sign a condemnation of Athanasius, the great defender of the faith in the East, Hilary refused and was banished from France to far off Phrygia. Eventually he was called the “Athanasius of the West.”

While writing in exile, he was invited by some semi-Arians (hoping for reconciliation) to a council the emperor called to counteract the Council of Nicea. But Hilary predictably defended the Church, and when he sought public debate with the heretical bishop who had exiled him, the Arians, dreading the meeting and its outcome, pleaded with the emperor to send this troublemaker back home ...

Reflection

Christ said his coming would bring not peace but a sword (see Matthew 10:34). The Gospels offer no support for us if we fantasize about a sunlit holiness that knows no problems ... after a life of controversy, problems, pain and frustration. Hilary, like all saints, simply had more of the same.

Dear Padre

January 7, 2024

On what date was Jesus born? Was it December 25 or some time between December and April, when shepherds watched over their sheep?

Due to the complexity of history's various calendars and ways of calculating time, we cannot be sure of the date. Matthew and Luke, the two Gospels that detail the birth of Jesus, do not give a date.

Early Christians observed an annual feast to remember Jesus' death and resurrection, focusing on the paschal mystery rather than on his birth. As Christianity grew and spread, however, Christians wanted to celebrate more events from Jesus' life. The celebration on December 25 has more to do with an expression of faith in Jesus as Emmanuel, "God with us," than with establishing the exact date of his birth.

December 25 is listed as the date of Jesus' birth in a fourth-century calendar of martyrs, but how this date was chosen is unclear. Some scholars believe Christians in Rome chose December 25 to counteract the celebration of the pagan sun god Emesa. Another theory follows the influences of the seasons: early Christians believed John the Baptist was conceived on the autumnal equinox and born at the summer solstice. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus' conception took place six month after John's. That time line would place Jesus' birth at the winter solstice, December 25 on the Julian calendar. A third theory says Jesus' birth would have occurred on the same date as his death, which we believe to be in the spring at Passover. Regardless of the exact date, we celebrate Jesus as the true Son of God who came to enlighten us and, by his death and resurrection, to give us life. ●

Eucharistic Miracle of the World Exhibition

Since Carlo Acutis was beatified in 2020, he has been the subject of widespread interest across the globe. A young "computer geek" who created a website cataloguing every reported Eucharistic miracle in the World before dying of leukemia at age fifteen.

Carlo is a sign of contradiction in the modern world who serves as heroic model for today's young people - a teenager who programmed computers and enjoyed films and comics yet lived as an authentic and sincere disciple of Christ.

St. Pius X church will be exhibiting the Eucharistic Miracles of the World catalogued by Carlo Acutis and approved by the Catholic Church on weekends between 01/13/2024 to 01/28/2024 to make it available for our parishioners and our community to see.

"The Eucharist manifests that the Church and the future of the human race are bound together in Christ and in no other reality. He is the one, truly lasting rock. Therefore, Christ's victory is the Christian People who believe, celebrate, and live the Eucharistic mystery" (XI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, Instrumentum Laboris, 2005)

Thank you to the generous gifts for the less fortunate children.

We collected 500 gifts in total - 33 of these gifts went to Don Bosco Parish in Port Chester and 467 for the children of Holy Spirit Parish in the Bronx. Thank you too to our 7th and 8th Graders who helped pack them up.
