The Conversion of Saint Paul, Jan. 25

Saint Paul's entire life can be explained in terms of one experience—his meeting with Jesus on the road to Damascus. In an instant, he saw that all the zeal of his dynamic personality was being wasted, like the strength of a boxer swinging wildly. Perhaps he had never seen Jesus, who was only a few years older. But he had acquired a zealot's hatred of all Jesus stood for, as he began to harass the Church: "...entering house after house and dragging out men and women, he handed them over for imprisonment" (Acts 8:3b). Now he himself was "entered," possessed, all his energy harnessed to one goal—being a slave of Christ in the ministry of reconciliation, an instrument to help others experience the one Savior.

[Jesus'] theology: "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting" (Acts 9:5b) ... Jesus, [Paul] saw, was the mysterious fulfillment of all he had been blindly pursuing.

From then on, his only work was to "present everyone perfect in Christ. For this I labor and struggle, in accord with the exercise of his power working within me" (Colossians 1:28b-29). "For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and [with] much conviction" (1 Thessalonians 1:5a).

Paul's life became a tireless proclaiming and living out of the message of the cross: Christians die baptismally to sin and are buried with Christ ... Through this risen Christ the Father pours out the Spirit on them, making them completely new.

So Paul's great message to the world was: You are saved entirely by God, not by anything you can do. Saving faith is the gift of total, free, personal and loving commitment to Christ ...

Dear Padre

January 21, 2024

While on vacation, I attended Mass at a church where many people left right after Communion. Why would they do this?

Canon law says the faithful are bound to participate in the Mass on Sundays and other holy days. We are expected to attend the entire Mass.

A misunderstanding of this law may be traced to a pre-Vatican II teaching. Some theologians taught that the Mass had three main parts: offertory, consecration, and Communion. Some people reasoned that their obligation would be fulfilled by attending only those parts of the Mass. They felt justified in coming late and leaving early.

This changed with the Second Vatican Council (1962–1965). The Mass is divided into four sections (introductory rites, Liturgy of the Word, Liturgy of the Eucharist, concluding rite), and Christ is present throughout the Mass. Attending Mass means being there from the processional hymn through the recessional hymn.

Some people have valid reasons for leaving Mass early, such as feeling ill or taking a crying child from church. Perhaps they are traveling and need to get to the airport on time. Still, I also wonder why there is a great exodus before the Mass has ended in some churches. In my opinion, people who are in the habit of leaving early should reconsider that practice. ●

Eucharistic Miracle of the World Exhibition

The Eucharistic Miracle of the World Exhibit opened on Saturday 1/13 after the 5pm Mass in the Parish Hall of St Pius X Church. After the opening remarks and a Blessing from Father Sebastian, Agustin Lago projected a video on the life of Carlo Acutis and introduced the Speaker Sabrina Ferrisi, a reporter with the National Catholic Register, who extensively researched the life of Carlo Acutis, the Italian teenager who could become the first millennial saint. Ms Ferrisi has published the book Blessed Carlo Acutis: The Amazing Discovery of a Teenager in Heaven (copies available in the Parish Hall). The exhibit will be open to the public on the weekends of 1/20-21 and 1/27-28 (Saturday 4:00-7:00pm; Sunday 8:30am-2:00pm). A special thanks to Agustin Lago, who curated the exhibit, and to Richard Vera, Laeh Yang-DiPietro and Marina Cardillo, who helped setting up and organizing it.

Religious Education

Eucharistic Miracle of the World Exhibition

Since Carlo Acutis was beatified in 2020, he has been the subject of widespread interest across the globe. A young "computer geek" who created a website cataloguing every reported Eucharistic miracle in the World before dying of leukemia at age fifteen.

Carlo is a sign of contradiction in the modern world who serves as heroic model for today's young people - a teenager who programmed computers and enjoyed films and comics yet lived as an authentic and sincere disciple of Christ.

St. Pius X church will be exhibiting the Eucharistic Miracles of the World catalogued by Carlo Acutis and approved by the Catholic Church on weekends between 01/13/2024 to 01/28/2024 to make it available for our parishioners and our community to see. Saturdays from 4:00pm-7:00pm and Sundays after 8am Mass to 2pm.

"The Eucharist manifests that the Church and the future of the human race are bound together in Christ and in no other reality. He is the one, truly lasting rock. Therefore, Christ's victory is the Christian People who believe, celebrate, and live the Eucharistic mystery" (XI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, Instrumentum Laboris, 2005)
