St. Polycarp – February 23

Polycarp, bishop of Smyrna (modern Izmir, Turkey), disciple of St. John the Apostle and friend of St. Ignatius of Antioch was a revered Christian leader during the first half of the second century.

St. Ignatius, on his way to Rome to be martyred, visited Polycarp at Smyrna, and later at Troas wrote him a personal letter. The Asia Minor Churches recognized Polycarp's leadership by choosing him as a representative to discuss with Pope Anicetus the date of the Easter celebration in Rome – a major controversy in the early Church...

At 86, Polycarp was led into the crowded Smyrna stadium to be burned alive. The flames did not harm him and he was finally killed by a dagger. The centurion ordered the saint's body burned. The "Acts" of Polycarp's martyrdom are the earliest preserved, fully reliable account of a Christian martyr's death. He died in 156.

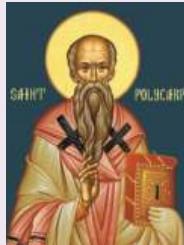

Comment:

Polycarp was recognized as a Christian leader by all Asia Minor Christians – a strong fortress of faith and loyalty to Jesus Christ. His own strength emerged from his trust in God, even when events contradicted this trust. Living among pagans and under a government opposed to the new religion, he led and fed his flock. Like the Good Shepherd, he laid down his life for his sheep and kept them from more persecution in Smyrna. He summarized his trust in God just before he died: "Father... I bless Thee, for having made me worthy of the day and the hour... ." (Martyrdom, Chapter 14).

Quote:

"Stand fast, therefore, in this conduct and follow the example of the Lord, 'firm and unchangeable in faith, lovers of the brotherhood, loving each other, united in truth,' helping each other with the mildness of the Lord, despising no man" (Polycarp, Letter to the Philippians).

Dear Padre

February 18, 2024

We're in the middle of home renovations, and the season of Lent is beginning. Everything is in total disarray. Any ideas to help me "keep my religion" at this time?

"There is...a time to tear down, and a time to build" (Ecclesiastes 3:1, 3). During the season of Lent—a word meaning "spring"—we are called to put away the "dead" deeds of winter. It's a time of spiritual "spring cleaning" for the individual and for the faith community. As nature renews herself every spring, so do we. The change of season may even prompt a renovation project—the kind you are now undertaking. The structural changes to a home afford many spiritual parallels—the redoing of your physical home can be a challenge to realign your spiritual home during Lent.

In the Genesis story, God is pleased with the handiwork of his creation. Likewise, our stamina, perseverance, and patience to see a work through to its completion are cause for great satisfaction and celebration. This would remind us that we are made in the same image of God, who took delight in his own work. Lent also can become a time of delighting in ourselves as God's special and ongoing creation.

When your home improvement project is completed, arrange for a blessing of your home. Enthrone a special cross or icon to venerate, light a devotional candle, and use holy water in the area of the home that was improved. At that time, remind yourself again that you and your home belong to the Lord—renewed during the spring cleaning of Lent! ●

VOLUNTEER AND NEW PARISHIONERS WINTER RECEPTION February 2, 2024

As the theme of the St. Pius X 70th Anniversary "Renew, Rejoice, Reconnect" invites us, the Volunteer & New Parishioners Reception was a great occasion to rejoice as we celebrated our achievements and welcomed newer members of our parish, renewed the tradition to recognize our volunteers and enthusiastically reconnected after the COVID pandemic.

More than 100 parishioners attended the reception. The appetizers, hot food, desserts and wine were delicious and abundant! Lucy and Nick Brusco were the Masters of Ceremony and, after a few moments of silence to remember our departed parishioners, they introduced two families that have recently joined our community. James and Lily Kouame Leff, and Bill and Jen Lacerenza, shared compelling stories about finding in St Pius X Church their new spiritual home. The ceremony continued with volunteer appreciation: Marina Cardillo, Kathy Cripps, Patti Gordon and Debra Lupardo were awarded the "Salt of the Earth" recognition. Tom Battistoni and Emilia Rodriguez, Ann and Peter Cervoni (posthumously), Sylvia and Gregory DeSousa (posthumously), Manny and Martha Neiro were recognized with "Light of the World". A long round of applause accompanied recognition of Father Raymond, as attendees showed their appreciation for all he has done in the last three years as the Parochial Vicar. His gift from the Parish Council was a Philadelphia Eagles team shirt that will remind Fr. Raymond of his friends in the St. Pius X Community once he returns to the Philippines!

A heartfelt THANK YOU to Althea Fusco, Kathy Cripps, Bob Cripps, Al Naclerio, Laeh Yang-DiPietro and Marina Cardillo for organizing the event; Althea Fusco, Liz Clark, Mei DiPietro, Ellen Aslanian, Fely Bajarin and Amy Fortes for their tireless efforts during the event and clean up; Jesse Jahn for setting up the Parish Hall. Thanks also to Father Sebastian and Father Raymond for continuously fueling our desire to help others and keep St. Pius X Church a vibrant community. Father Rocky, welcome to our parish!

LENTEN FOOD DRIVE

The slowly disappearing pandemic and current inflation have taken an economic toll on many of us - but especially those who are food insecure and struggle to feed their families.

Our Lenten Food Drive has always been one of the most productive food collection times of the year and serves so many needy, working poor families at the merged parishes of St. Peter's and St. Denis' in Yonkers. As we have done in the past, paper grocery bags with suggested food lists attached will be on the tables in the Narthex. Please take home a bag and bring it back the following week with canned or packaged foods and place in the Food Pantry closet. Separate food lists will be on the tables in the Narthex. Feel free to use your own bags or boxes should we run out of our bags.

If you are unable or shop for or carry in groceries, a check of any size may be made out to Church of St. Pius X and mailed to: Church of St. Pius X, Attn: Parish Office 91 Secor Road Scarsdale, NY 10583 Please note in the memo section that this is for the Lenten Food Collection. The children of the parish are encouraged to bring in canned or packaged food items to carry to the Altar during the 10:30 a.m. Children's Mass each Sunday. Thank you so much!!

Lenten Fast and Abstinence

During the Season of Lent, the Church urges all the Faithful to reflect a spirit of penance in their daily life through fast and abstinence.

FASTING requires that only one full meal be taken per day. Two other smaller meals may be taken during the day to maintain physical strength, but these two meals together should not equal a full meal in quantity. Fasting obliges all those who have reached the age of 18 through 59. Those not specifically obliged to fast are encouraged to join in the discipline to the extent they are able.

ABSTINENCE prohibits individuals from eating meat on a particular day. Abstinence obliges all those who have reached the age of 14 and throughout life. ASH WEDNESDAY and GOOD FRIDAY are days of fast and abstinence. Fridays in Lent are days of abstinence.
