5th & 6th Grade Bake Sale

The 5th and 6th grade bake sale was a huge success. We raised $1083 to benefit the purchase of Bibles for the incarcerated in Valhalla and also for the purchase of undergarments for the patrons of the St. Bart's soup kitchen in White Plains. A big thank you to all the 5th and 6th grade families that provided all the baked goods as well as worked the sales table. A special thank you goes out to the Kouame-Leff Family for their very generous donation. Thank you also to all the wonderful St. Pius parishioners who were so generous when purchasing the baked goods.

Teachers:

Maria Pick, Judy Papa and Jemima Cestari.

Dear Padre

April 14, 2024

What is a "covenant," and how are marriage and covenant related?

"Covenant" is the word the Church employs to define and describe the sacrament of matrimony. It is clearly based on the idea of "covenant" contained in Scripture. In contrast, society uses the related word "contract," as in the "marriage contract." However, these two words do not mean the same thing.

The meaning of "contract" is too limited to contain the full commitment of Christian marriage. When you sign a contract, you are legally bound only to its terms. You need not do more or less than what is stipulated in its wording. Warmth and concern for the well-being of one party for the other are not stipulated in a contract.

A covenant, on the other hand, is different. Although it may contain some aspects of contract, it establishes a personal relationship of closeness, affection, and warmth, and it locks the couple into a mutual commitment to each other's well-being.

As God freely chose Israel from all the nations possible, so do two people choose each other from all other people. As God declared, "I will take you as my people, and I will be your God" (Exodus 6:7). In the same way, a husband and wife pledge total commitment to each other.

Christian marriage bears the same characteristics of covenant commitment—the personal relationship of caring, loyalty, intimacy, exclusivity, permanency, and, above all, love; hence the use of "covenant" to define Christian marriage. ●

SEASONS OF HOPE

Seasons of Hope: A Catholic Bereavement Series

Are you grieving the loss of a loved one? The Church of St. Pius X is offering a six-session, faith-based Catholic series for those in mourning. Seasons of Hope offers an opportunity to gather with others in a small group setting and to share in God's love. With the support of the faith community, we give voice to our unique journeys of grief and find healing and spiritual growth. Seasons of Hope sessions explore our personal journeys of mourning through scripture, prayer, reflection, and faith sharing.

The Seasons of Hope series begins on Thursday, April 25th, and will meet for six Thursdays through May 30th. Sessions run from 6:30 - 8:00 pm and meetings are held in the St. Pius X Parish Pavilion.

Pre-registration is required and the size of the group is limited. Due to the very personal sharing of this experience, all participants are required to register before April 25th. No one will be admitted to the program after that date. To sign up for the program, please register through this link:

<https://bit.ly/3wzpSM4> or QR code below.

Seasons of Hope will be co-facilitated by Linda Puoplo, a St. Pius the X parishioner and seasoned social worker experienced with all journeys of the human experience, and Sr. Pat Sheridan, RDC, a social worker, and a bereavement counselor. If you would like additional information, please contact Linda at (845) 803-9187 or lpuoplo@gmail.com.
