Dear Padre

April 21, 2024

My son was raised Catholic and still claims he is Catholic, but he and his wife go to a Protestant church. How should I deal with my frustration?

Many parents and grandparents today share your frustration. They raised their children Catholic, maybe even sent them to Catholic schools, but the children have grown up and chosen not to continue to be faithful Catholics. A recent survey showed that nine out of ten people say they believe in God, but often they are not committed to a single religion or house of worship. About half of the people questioned attend religious services less than once a month, or never. The loyalty to one Church that was evident in our own lives, or in our parents' and grandparents' lives, is lacking in today's people under age fifty-five.

What can one do about this situation? Certainly pray for your children and continue to give a good example through your own loyalty to the Catholic Church and attendance at Sunday Mass. Invite your son and his wife to attend with you when they visit. As your children age, they may become more interested in your family's history and traditions, and the religion of their childhood may again appear attractive. Try to be patient and continue to pray that your children will return to the Church of their roots. ●

Church of Saint Pius X

April 2024

Dear Parishioners,

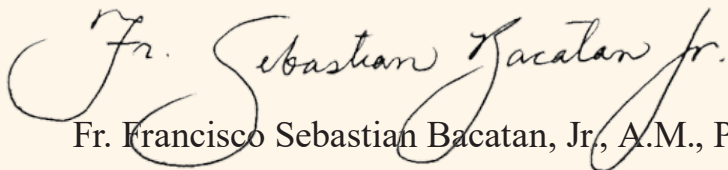

*“He who is generous will be blessed, for he gives some of his food to the poor.”
Proverbs 22:9*

Thank you for remembering the Church of St. Pius X this Easter season. Your generous Easter donations help to defray the day-to-day costs of running our parish including the many ministries in which our parish engages to help those less fortunate.

Easter is a good time to remember family and to be grateful for the blessings that God has bestowed on us. I am continually amazed and thankful for your unyielding commitment to helping those in need in our community at the Church of St. Pius X and outside our community.

May God always bless you and your family!

Yours faithfully in Christ,

Seasons of Hope: A Catholic Bereavement Series

Are you grieving the loss of a loved one? The Church of St. Pius X is offering a six-session, faith-based Catholic series for those in mourning. Seasons of Hope offers an opportunity to gather with others in a small group setting and to share in God's love. With the support of the faith community, we give voice to our unique journeys of grief and find healing and spiritual growth. Seasons of Hope sessions explore our personal journeys of mourning through scripture, prayer, reflection, and faith sharing.

The Seasons of Hope series begins on Thursday, April 25th, and will meet for six Thursdays through May 30th. Sessions run from 6:30 - 8:00 pm and meetings are held in the St. Pius X Parish Pavilion. Pre-registration is required and the size of the group is limited. Due to the very personal sharing of this experience, all participants are required to register before April 25th. No one will be admitted to the program after that date. To sign up for the program, please register through this link: <https://bit.ly/3wzpSM4> or QR code below.

Seasons of Hope will be co-facilitated by Linda Puoplo, a St. Pius the X parishioner and seasoned social worker experienced with all journeys of the human experience, and Sr. Pat Sheridan, RDC, a social worker, and a bereavement counselor. If you would like additional information, please contact Linda at (845) 803-9187 or lpuoplo@gmail.com.
