Dear Padre

May 12, 2024

What were the main changes brought about by the Second Vatican Council?

It has been sixty years since the Second Vatican Council and we are still learning from what Pope John Paul II called the “fundamental event in the contemporary Church” and “the constant reference point of every pastoral action.” Vatican II’s sixteen documents focus on a wide variety of topics, touching almost every conceivable aspect of Church and Christian life. Four of the documents bear the title of “Constitution” and contain the core formulations of the council’s teachings.

The most visible change might be in how we worship. But even more fundamental is the emphasis on the Church as the “people of God.” Baptism admits all to the same journey of faith, initiating each person with differing talents and abilities into the mission of the Church. Thus, the faithful must be “led to that fully conscious, and active participation in liturgical celebrations which is demanded by the very nature of the liturgy. Such participation by the Christian people as ‘a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a redeemed people’ (1 Peter 2:9; see 2:4–5), is their right and duty by reason of their baptism” (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy [Sacrosanctum Concilium], 14). The hierarchy continues, but it is to hear and serve God’s people; “servant leadership” is the way to exercise authority in the Church of Vatican II. ●

Christina Colagrande lives in New Rochelle. She is a Christian school teacher at The Chapel School in Bronxville where she is also their Summer Camp Director. She holds a Masters Degree in Special Education and Early Childhood Education. She is married with three children, Alessia (8), Alana (5) and Angelina (2). Christina and her family joined the St. Pius X parish two years ago when her oldest daughter Alessia joined the Religious Education program at St. Pius X. Her daughter Alana will attend as well in the Fall 2024. Christiana has volunteered for the Trunk or Treat, has attended the Breakfast with Santa and the Christmas tree lighting, along with other events since joining the Parish.

Anthony Fiorenza is a dedicated parishioner at St. Pius X since 2004, where he was confirmed in 2007. Anthony's strong leadership skills and commitment to service are complemented by his professional experience in strategic corporate and government relations. Anthony is an Executive Recruiter at Dynasty Consulting, focusing on Business Development. He brings a wealth of experience from his previous roles, including at Lucy Labs in Stamford, CT, where he managed the product development lifecycle and at Tortoll LLC in New York, where as co-founder and CFO, he developed a system to help everyday drivers in New York avoid egregious toll violation fees. Additionally, Anthony has notable experience at the United Nations, where he contributed to strategic projects and participated in the UNIDO General Conference, enhancing his expertise in international relations and global policy development.

James Kouame joined the St. Pius X Church two years ago with his wife and three children. They attend Sunday Mass regularly, with their kids actively involved in our parish as altar servers, lectors, and attending catechism classes. James is a Eucharistic Minister and has participated in various church initiatives, including blood donation drives. As member of the Parish Council, James is eager to contribute his energy and experience to continue the welcoming and inclusive environment of our community, support initiatives that engage families and young people to ensure the future growth of our parish community, advocate for effective communication between the PC and all parishioners, and engage in ministries and events to support our strong tradition of service.

William (Billy) Lacerenza and his family have been parishioners at St. Pius X since 2021. Recently, he has volunteered as a lector for the 10:30AM children's mass, which he regularly attends with his family. Prior to St. Pius X he was a parishioner at St. Joseph's Church in New Rochelle where he was born, raised and made his sacraments. Spanning almost 20 years he was an active member of the parish council, 3rd and 6th grade catechist as well as appointed a delegate to the lay Archdiocesan Pastoral Council. He was also integral in planning and executing parish fundraisers such as Pasta Night & the annual St. Anthony Feast and Bazaar. In his leisure time when not pursuing his career as accounting supervisor for the Town of Mamaroneck he enjoys being outside, gardening & working on his classic Cadillac. Having witnessed firsthand the impact a few dedicated volunteers can have on a parish he is looking forward to being of service to St. Pius X and its community.

Baihua (Laeh) Yang-DiPietro joined the parish a little over three years ago. In the last year Laeh has led a women's retreat, helped coordinate the annual Trunk or Treat & baby shower drive, manages St. Pius' Instagram page @stpiusxscarsdale, is a lector, a youth ministry coordinator, hosted the first Lunar New Year celebration, assisted in planning the Carlos Acutis exhibit and is the current President of the Parish Council. Laeh enjoys going to the 8:00AM mass because she loves how quiet it is and when the sun hits the stained glass behind the altar at that time of morning, she feels like God is more present with her at church. Her favorite events to personally fundraise for are the baby shower and adopt-a-mom at Christmas benefiting the Good Counsel Homes moms! She has enjoyed being part of this vibrant parish and looks forward to continuing to serve.

Michael Cosgrove has been a parishioner at St. Pius X since 2015. He enjoys attending Mass weekly. He often attends with his grandchildren, who volunteer as altar servers. Michael has many years of professional experience in business and finance with General Electric, Neuberger Berman and numerous Board and Trustee positions. He currently serves as the Parish Council treasurer and liaison to the finance committee. He has a heart for service and is looking forward to continuing sharing his gifts on the Parish Council.

Parish Announcements

Schubert Mass in G Saturday, June 1 at 5:00pm

St. Pius X Choir, Orchestra and Soloists perform this Masterwork as the Celebration of the Mass.

Concerts are FREE and open to the public!

We invite you to join us for a Solemn High Mass at 5:00 pm on Saturday, June 1, 2024, where professional soloists and a professional orchestra will join our Festival Choir to perform Schubert's Mass in G Major. We will present Schubert's compositions for the five parts of the Ordinary of the Mass: Kyrie; Gloria; Creed; Holy, Holy, Holy; and Lamb of God.

This is an exceptional opportunity to hear these masterpieces. While in many parts of Europe, these compositions remain an integral part of the Mass, in the US we often hear them in concert settings only.

PLEASE ARRIVE ON TIME TO BE SEATED.

Church will be available on a first come first served basis until maximum capacity is reached.

After Mass, which will last approximately one and a half hours, please join us for a reception in the parish hall in celebration of the 70th anniversary of our Parish. Please sign up at the link below so that we can plan for food and seating and consider making a monetary donation to cover part of the cost.

ONGOING FOOD DRIVE

Imagine you could have a nutritious & satisfying meal only on Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter, but the rest of the year you struggled to put a complete dinner on your nightly table. This is exactly what faces a great many of the working poor parishioners of St. Peter's-St. Denis' Churches. For example, 4,220 adults, children & seniors were served in the month of March alone. With your help we can provide canned/packageged food and funds to supplement this need.

Please continue to support our YEAR-ROUND food pantry. If you are unable or shop for or carry in groceries, a check of any size may be made out to Church of St. Pius X and mailed to: Church of St. Pius X, Attn: Parish Office, 91 Secor Road, Scarsdale, NY 10583 Please note in the memo section that this is for the Food Pantry.

Thank you so much!!

St. Pius X Church warmly welcomes The PAAC Rondalla to our Pentecost Pot Luck Luncheon, where they will provide musical accompaniment. Established in 1997 with 20 members under the guidance of Luz Bradley and Dr. Winston Magno, the rondalla group has graced various venues across Connecticut, from educational institutions to healthcare centers. Despite fluctuations in numbers due to members pursuing higher education, our group has remained a steadfast source of laughter and camaraderie. Through the strumming of instruments, they find solace in music, transcending our troubles. Lillian Quevedo beautifully captures this sentiment by stating, "Music is God's gift to men, the only art of Heaven given to earth, the only art of earth we take to Heaven."
