St. Rita of Cascia (1381-1457) - May 22

(The St. Pius X Altar of the 12 Apostles holds a relic of St. Rita of Cascia in a small square cavity or sepulchrum above the St. Pius X coat of arms)

Like Elizabeth Ann Seton, Rita of Cascia was a wife, mother, widow and member of a religious community. Her holiness was reflected in each phase of her life.

Born at Roccaporena in central Italy, Rita wanted to become a nun but was pressured at a young age into marrying a harsh and cruel man. During [her] marriage, she bore and raised two sons. After her husband was killed in a brawl and her sons had died, Rita tried to join the Augustinian nuns in Cascia. Unsuccessful at first because she was a widow, Rita eventually succeeded.

Over the years, her austerity, prayerfulness and charity became legendary. When she developed wounds on her forehead, people quickly associated them with the wounds from Christ's crown of thorns. She meditated frequently on Christ's passion. Her care for the sick nuns was especially loving. She also counseled lay people who came to her monastery.

Beatified in 1626, Rita was not canonized until 1900. She has acquired the reputation ... as a saint of impossible cases. Many people visit her tomb each year.

Comment:

Although we can easily imagine an ideal world in which to live out our baptismal vocation, such a world does not exist. An "If only ..." approach to holiness never quite gets underway, never produces the fruit that God has a right to expect.

Rita became holy because she made choices that reflected her Baptism and her growth as a disciple of Jesus. Her overarching, lifelong choice was to cooperate generously with God's grace, but many small choices were needed to make that happen. Few of those choices were made in ideal circumstances ...

Christina Colagrande lives in New Rochelle. She is a Christian school teacher at The Chapel School in Bronxville where she is also their Summer Camp Director. She holds a Masters Degree in Special Education and Early Childhood Education. She is married with three children, Alessia (8), Alana (5) and Angelina (2). Christina and her family joined the St. Pius X parish two years ago when her oldest daughter Alessia joined the Religious Education program at St. Pius X. Her daughter Alana will attend as well in the Fall 2024. Christiana has volunteered for the Trunk or Treat, has attended the Breakfast with Santa and the Christmas tree lighting, along with other events since joining the Parish.

Anthony Fiorenza is a dedicated parishioner at St. Pius X since 2004, where he was confirmed in 2007. Anthony's strong leadership skills and commitment to service are complemented by his professional experience in strategic corporate and government relations. Anthony is an Executive Recruiter at Dynasty Consulting, focusing on Business Development. He brings a wealth of experience from his previous roles, including at Lucy Labs in Stamford, CT, where he managed the product development lifecycle and at Tortoll LLC in New York, where as co-founder and CFO, he developed a system to help everyday drivers in New York avoid egregious toll violation fees. Additionally, Anthony has notable experience at the United Nations, where he contributed to strategic projects and participated in the UNIDO General Conference, enhancing his expertise in international relations and global policy development.

James Kouame joined the St. Pius X Church two years ago with his wife and three children. They attend Sunday Mass regularly, with their kids actively involved in our parish as altar servers, lectors, and attending catechism classes. James is a Eucharistic Minister and has participated in various church initiatives, including blood donation drives. As member of the Parish Council, James is eager to contribute his energy and experience to continue the welcoming and inclusive environment of our community, support initiatives that engage families and young people to ensure the future growth of our parish community, advocate for effective communication between the PC and all parishioners, and engage in ministries and events to support our strong tradition of service.

William (Billy) Lacerenza and his family have been parishioners at St. Pius X since 2021. Recently, he has volunteered as a lector for the 10:30AM children's mass, which he regularly attends with his family. Prior to St. Pius X he was a parishioner at St. Joseph's Church in New Rochelle where he was born, raised and made his sacraments. Spanning almost 20 years he was an active member of the parish council, 3rd and 6th grade catechist as well as appointed a delegate to the lay Archdiocesan Pastoral Council. He was also integral in planning and executing parish fundraisers such as Pasta Night & the annual St. Anthony Feast and Bazaar. In his leisure time when not pursuing his career as accounting supervisor for the Town of Mamaroneck he enjoys being outside, gardening & working on his classic Cadillac. Having witnessed firsthand the impact a few dedicated volunteers can have on a parish he is looking forward to being of service to St. Pius X and its community.

Baihua (Laeh) Yang-DiPietro joined the parish a little over three years ago. In the last year Laeh has led a women's retreat, helped coordinate the annual Trunk or Treat & baby shower drive, manages St. Pius' Instagram page @stpiusxscarsdale, is a lector, a youth ministry coordinator, hosted the first Lunar New Year celebration, assisted in planning the Carlos Acutis exhibit and is the current President of the Parish Council. Laeh enjoys going to the 8:00AM mass because she loves how quiet it is and when the sun hits the stained glass behind the altar at that time of morning, she feels like God is more present with her at church. Her favorite events to personally fundraise for are the baby shower and adopt-a-mom at Christmas benefiting the Good Counsel Homes moms! She has enjoyed being part of this vibrant parish and looks forward to continuing to serve.

Michael Cosgrove has been a parishioner at St. Pius X since 2015. He enjoys attending Mass weekly. He often attends with his grandchildren, who volunteer as altar servers. Michael has many years of professional experience in business and finance with General Electric, Neuberger Berman and numerous Board and Trustee positions. He currently serves as the Parish Council treasurer and liaison to the finance committee. He has a heart for service and is looking forward to continuing sharing his gifts on the Parish Council.

ONGOING FOOD DRIVE

Imagine you could have a nutritious & satisfying meal only on Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter, but the rest of the year you struggled to put a complete dinner on your nightly table. This is exactly what faces a great many of the working poor parishioners of St. Peter's-St. Denis' Churches. For example, 4,220 adults, children & seniors were served in the month of March alone. With your help we can provide canned/package food and funds to supplement this need.

Please continue to support our YEAR-ROUND food pantry. If you are unable or shop for or carry in groceries, a check of any size may be made out to Church of St. Pius X and mailed to: Church of St. Pius X, Attn: Parish Office, 91 Secor Road, Scarsdale, NY 10583 Please note in the memo section that this is for the Food Pantry.

Thank you so much!!
