Saints & Special Observance

Sunday: The Most Holy Trinity
Monday: St. Augustine of Canterbury
Wednesday: St. Paul VI
Friday: The Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Saturday: St. Justin

St. Augustine of Canterbury
(d. 605?) – May 27

In the year 596, some 40 monks set out from Rome to evangelize the Anglo- Saxons in England. Leading the group was Augustine ... Hardly had he and his men reached Gaul (France) when they heard stories of the ferocity of the Anglo-Saxons and of the treacherous waters of the English Channel. Augustine returned to Rome and to the pope who had sent them – St. Gregory the Great ... only to be assured by him that their fears were groundless.

Augustine again set out. This time the group crossed the English Channel and landed in the territory of Kent, ruled by King Ethelbert, a pagan married to a Christian, Bertha. Ethelbert received them kindly, set up a residence for them in Canterbury and within the year, on Pentecost Sunday, 597, was himself baptized. After being consecrated a bishop in France, Augustine returned to Canterbury, where he founded his see... sees were [also] established at London and Rochester.

Work was sometimes slow and Augustine did not always meet with success. Attempts to reconcile the Anglo-Saxon Christians with the original Briton Christians ... ended in dismal failure. Augustine failed to convince the Britons to give up certain Celtic customs at variance with Rome and to forget their bitterness, helping him evangelize their Anglo-Saxon conquerors.

Laboring patiently, Augustine wisely heeded the missionary principles ... suggested by Pope Gregory the Great: purify rather than destroy pagan temples and customs; let pagan rites and festivals be transformed into Christian feasts; retain local customs as far as possible. The limited success Augustine achieved in England ... would eventually bear fruit long after in the conversion of England. Augustine of Canterbury can truly be called the “Apostle of England.”

Sound System Upgrade at Church of St. Pius X

Dear Parishioners,

I want to announce a significant needed upgrade to our sound system at the Church of St. Pius X. This enhancement will further enrich our worship experience.

After 11 years since its initial installation, our sound system is in need of maintenance and updating. Therefore, we're installing two Forte AVB-AI DSP processors and two Biamp TEC-1 controllers, replacing the outdated Nexia processors. Additionally, this year, we've also replaced the Epson projector lamps, incurring a cost of $4,430, which required renting a lift.

These enhancements will significantly improve the sound quality during our liturgical services, particularly during the celebration of Mass, ensuring utmost clarity and depth.

To cover the total cost of $12,828.00 for the sound system upgrade and $4,430.00 for the projector lamps, we kindly request your generous contributions. Your support, whether through donations or sponsorship, will profoundly benefit our worship.

To contribute, please contact the parish office.

Thank you for your support.

Blessings,

F. Sebastian

Kelly Myers

She joined the St. Pius X Church in July 2023 with her son. Her leadership skills and commitment to People Development has been a focal point in her corporate career at Wells Fargo and NatWest Markets. At both firms she played active roles that concentrated on creating a strong and diverse culture based on developing each individual. However, she is most proud of the program she created at St. Catherine of Siena Church in Greenwich CT. As the Religious Education leader, she launched 'Life's Journey' for children in grades K-8 that focused on theology, worship, living the faith, spirituality, and celebration. Kelly is excited to be part of the Parish Council and share her passion and knowledge and continue to support the welcoming and inclusive parish community for all families.

Jim Bruni

James & his wife Victoria joined St Pius in 2024. They're from Ridgewood, NJ, where they raised their two children and attended St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church, they now live in White Plains. Jim was an active participant at St. Elizabeth's Church, serving in the music ministry for over 25 years and on the Parish Council. Jim was part of the faculty at Lehman College, where he taught pre-service and in-service teachers and served as Dean of the Division of Education. Upon retirement, he started a second career as a licensed Mental Health Counselor. He worked at Pathways Counseling Center, which is affiliated with St. Mary's Catholic Church. In 2021 Jim was honored to receive the "Vivere Christus Award" in recognition for his years of service to St. Mary's Church. Jim looks forward to serving St. Pius X in any way his background may be useful.

ONGOING FOOD DRIVE

Imagine you could have a nutritious & satisfying meal only on Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter, but the rest of the year you struggled to put a complete dinner on your nightly table. This is exactly what faces a great many of the working poor parishioners of St. Peter's-St. Denis' Churches. For example, 4,220 adults, children & seniors were served in the month of March alone. With your help we can provide canned/package food and funds to supplement this need.

Please continue to support our YEAR-ROUND food pantry. If you are unable to shop for or carry in groceries, a check of any size may be made out to Church of St. Pius X and mailed to: Church of St. Pius X, Attn: Parish Office, 91 Secor Road, Scarsdale, NY 10583 Please note in the memo section that this is for the Food Pantry.

Thank you so much!!
