Saints & Special Observance

Sunday: Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Monday: The Nativity of St. John the Baptist
Thursday: St. Cyril
Friday: St. Irenaus
Saturday: Sts. Peter & Paul

Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, June 24

Jesus called John the greatest of all those who had preceded him: “I tell you, among those born of women, no one is greater than John...” But John would have agreed completely with what Jesus added: “[Y]et the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he” (Luke 7:28).

John spent his time in the desert, an ascetic. He began to announce the coming of the Kingdom, and to call everyone to a fundamental reformation of life.

His purpose was to prepare the way for Jesus. His Baptism, he said, was for repentance. But One would come who would baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire. John is not worthy even to carry his sandals. His attitude toward Jesus was: “He must increase; I must decrease” (John 3:30).

John was humbled to find among the crowd of sinners who came to be baptized the one whom he already knew to be the Messiah. “I need to be baptized by you” (Matthew 3:14b). But Jesus insisted, “Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness” (Matthew 3:15b)...

The greatness of John, his pivotal place in the history of salvation, is seen in the great emphasis Luke gives to the announcement of his birth and the event itself—both made prominently parallel to the same occurrences in the life of Jesus. John attracted countless people (“all Judea”) to the banks of the Jordan, and it occurred to some people that he might be the Messiah. But he constantly deferred to Jesus, even to sending away some of his followers to become the first disciples of Jesus...

Dear Padre

June 23, 2024

Do those who have died really remember us?

There are many clear indications in the Bible that the saints in heaven are aware of us and that there is interaction between those in heaven and people on earth. The most obvious passage is found in Hebrews 12:1: “Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses (those in heaven), let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us.” By their prayers, those in the “cloud of witnesses” help us finish the race.

Saint Paul wrote, “I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us” (Romans 8:18). We will “forget” the troubles we endured on earth, but we will be aware of the sufferings of those who are still on earth, and we will want to help them. Why? Because the greatest happiness, as Jesus said, is in giving (Acts 20:35).

The saints in heaven pray for us on earth; union with them brings us closer to Christ. We pray for those who are being purified after death, and they pray for us. We are one family. The closer our union with God, the closer our union with one another. We have a wonderful goal in life: the promise of union with God and with all those joined to God. ●

Ministry Outreach

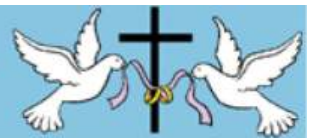

ONGOING FOOD DRIVE

Imagine you could have a nutritious & satisfying meal only on Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter, but the rest of the year you struggled to put a complete dinner on your nightly table. This is exactly what faces a great many of the working poor parishioners of St. Peter's-St. Denis' Churches. For example, 4,220 adults, children & seniors were served in the month of March alone. With your help we can provide canned/package food and funds to supplement this need.

Please continue to support our YEAR-ROUND food pantry. If you are unable or shop for or carry in groceries, a check of any size may be made out to Church of St. Pius X and mailed to: Church of St. Pius X, Attn: Parish Office, 91 Secor Road, Scarsdale, NY 10583 Please note in the memo section that this is for the Food Pantry.

Thank you so much!!

IMPORTANT UPCOMING EVENTS FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Volunteers Needed to Spread the Good News!

The Parish Religious Education Program endeavors to bring the Gospel message to all the Catholic families in the Parish. Throughout the years, our Religious Education thrives because of the generosity and dedication of volunteers who contribute in various ways in nurturing the hearts and minds of our young ones.

This year, the R.E. needs volunteers who are willing to serve as either teacher's assistants or hall monitor to be able to effectively facilitate the learning of our students. High school students are welcome to apply!

Teacher's Assistants work closely with the teacher during religious education classes. They assist in preparing materials, setting up the classroom, implementing class projects and ensuring a smooth flow of activities. They help monitor the students to maintain discipline and order in the classroom. They check class attendance, and when needed, the assistants accompany students who may need to go out of the classroom (e.g. to use the restroom).

Hall Monitors ensure the safety of students, staff while classes are in session. They monitor entrances, hallways, and common areas to maintain order and minimize disruptions. They prevent unauthorized access and address any security concerns. They note and, if necessary, attend to any unusual patterns, such as late arrivals or early departures of students. In case of emergencies (fire drills, lockdowns, etc.), hall monitors assist in evacuations and follow established protocols.

R.E. volunteers needed for next year:

- 1st Grade - 4 Assistants
- 2nd Grade - 2 Assistants
- 3rd Grade - 1 Assistant
- 6th Grade - 1 Assistant
- 7th Grade - 1 Assistant
- 1 Hall Monitor (on Mondays)

All volunteers will need to submit to a background check and complete the Safe Environment Training Program prescribed by the Archdiocese of New York.

How to Volunteer: If you feel called to serve, please reach out to our Religious Education Office at (914) 472-5594 or email Mrs. Ellen Aslanian at spxreled@spxny.org. Your willingness to serve our youth is a true blessing.

Thank you for being part of this sacred mission

The Church of Saint Pius X Religious Education Program is now accepting Registration for school year 2024-2025!
