St. Cajetan (1480-1557), August 7

Like most of us, Cajetan seemed headed for an “ordinary” life – first as a lawyer, then as a priest engaged in the work of the Roman Curia.

His life took a characteristic turn when he joined the Oratory of Divine Love in Rome, a group devoted to piety and charity, shortly after his ordination at 36. When he was 42 he founded a hospital for incurables at Venice. At Vicenza, he joined a “disreputable” religious community that consisted only of men of the lowest stations of life – and was roundly censured by his friends, who thought his action was a reflection on his family. He sought out the sick and poor of the town and served them.

The greatest need of the time was the reformation of a Church that was “sick in head and members.” Cajetan and three friends decided that the best road to reformation lay in reviving the spirit and zeal of the clergy. (One of them later became Paul IV.) Together they founded a congregation known as the Theatines (from Teate [Chieti] where their first superior-bishop had his see). They managed to escape to Venice after their house in Rome was wrecked when Emperor Charles V’s troops sacked Rome in 1527. The Theatines were outstanding among the Catholic reform movements that took shape before the Protestant Reformation. He founded a monte de pietà (“mountain [or fund] of piety”) in Naples—one of many charitable, nonprofit credit organizations that lent money on the security of pawned objects. The purpose was to help the poor and protect them against usurers. Cajetan’s little organization ultimately became the Bank of Naples, with great changes in policy.

Are Catholic statues the same as “graven images”?

God forbade the making of idols, images of false gods (Exodus 20:4–5). But God did not forbid the making of all images. Images of cherubim were placed on the Ark of the Covenant (Exodus 37:7–9), and the Book of Numbers tells how God commanded Moses to make a bronze serpent and put it on a pole as a sign of healing (Numbers 21:7–9).

Not only is the making of images or representations of people not forbidden by God, it is so common that we take it for granted. People keep photographs of those they love. In the same way, we Catholics love the saints as family members who have gone before us, and we keep images of them in our homes and churches.

Catholics do not worship the saints; we worship and adore God alone. But we do honor the saints, remembering their holy lives as we try to imitate them. There is nothing unusual about keeping statues and paintings in prominent places. Many cities display statues of leaders and important citizens. If we are given only secular models to imitate, we will be denied models who can guide us to Jesus and to eternal life. Images of the saints are reminders of God’s grace and goodness fleshed out in the lives of people very much like us. ●

Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15 /

Ephesians 4:17, 20-24 / John 6:24-35

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Besides the meals we eat, we also feed various other hungers throughout the day. Try “fasting” from your smartphone or computer for a day—no texting, no emails, no surfing the internet. If you are a news junkie, try going a day without your fix of the latest word from Washington or a sports update. At a creativity workshop, I was once given an assignment of not reading for an entire week, not even a cereal box at breakfast or the day’s TV schedule. The goal was to discover what I would do with all my extra time. Think about what feeds our daily hungers and interests.

What, then, does it mean to say that Jesus is our bread, that he is the one who feeds us and quenches our thirst? To come to him, to have faith in him, to follow him, is to live as he lived. When we do so, we find that our lives take on new meaning. Living as people who forgive feeds our hunger for peace with one another. Generosity breeds generosity; as we meet the needs of others, we find that others also meet our needs, and slowly the world begins to care and heal. Surrendering to God’s ways opens us to a wellspring of strength previously unknown. With Jesus as our bread, we find ourselves fed beyond our trivial hungers. ●

ONGOING FOOD DRIVE

Summer is a tough time for food pantries across the country because of people being away from their parishes for summer vacations, etc.

Many pantries do not have enough food to distribute. If you are in town, please take advantage of super market sales to stock up on canned or packaged goods that you can bring in when you attend Mass. If you are unable to shop for or carry in groceries, a check of any size may be made out to Church of St. Pius X and mailed to:

Church of St. Pius X
Attn: Parish Office
91 Secor Road
Scarsdale, NY, 10583

Please note in the memo section that this is for the Food Pantry.

Thank you so much!!

BAG2SCHOOL

Dear Parishioners,

In a time of continued great need for many in our community, we ask that you please consider supporting our St. Pius X Parish initiative: Bag2School.

Many families are struggling, and children need to learn. The good news is that we can provide much needed assistance to these children thanks to your donations. This year, we hope to continue supporting the following organizations:

- My Sister's Place: this wonderful organization strives to end domestic violence and human trafficking by providing free education, outreach, and confidential supportive and legal services throughout Westchester County. The goal is to send tablets and/or school supplies to the children at the shelter. The students and counselors would really appreciate our support!
- The Sharing Shelf's Backpacks to School: The Sharing Shelf has launched its annual Backpacks to School program to provide new backpacks and new school supplies to low-income children and teens in Westchester County. The organization plans to provide not just the basics, but enhanced materials such as age-appropriate educational magazines, puzzles, activity sets and books.
- Holy Spirit Church (Bronx): Underprivileged children in public schools under the Holy Spirit Church's (Father Gabriel's parish) religious education program need supplies for the upcoming school year. They are very grateful for your generosity!

Donate Today:

1. Checks: Make checks payable to Church of Saint Pius X with a note on the memo line: Bag2School.
2. Venmo: @SaintPiusXChurchScarsdale

Thank you very much for your help and support!

IMPORTANT UPCOMING EVENTS FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Volunteers Needed to Spread the Good News!

The Parish Religious Education Program endeavors to bring the Gospel message to all the Catholic families in the Parish. Throughout the years, our Religious Education thrives because of the generosity and dedication of volunteers who contribute in various ways in nurturing the hearts and minds of our young ones.

This year, the R.E. needs volunteers who are willing to serve as either teacher's assistants or hall monitor to be able to effectively facilitate the learning of our students. High school students are welcome to apply!

Teacher's Assistants work closely with the teacher during religious education classes. They assist in preparing materials, setting up the classroom, implementing class projects and ensuring a smooth flow of activities. They help monitor the students to maintain discipline and order in the classroom. They check class attendance, and when needed, the assistants accompany students who may need to go out of the classroom (e.g. to use the restroom).

Hall Monitors ensure the safety of students and staff while classes are in session. They monitor entrances, hallways, and common areas to maintain order and minimize disruptions. They prevent unauthorized access and address any security concerns. They note and, if necessary, attend to any unusual patterns, such as late arrivals or early departures of students. In case of emergencies (fire drills, lockdowns, etc.), hall monitors assist in evacuations and follow established protocols.

R.E. volunteers needed for next year:

- 1st Grade - 4 Assistants
- 2nd Grade - 2 Assistants
- 3rd Grade - 1 Assistant
- 6th Grade - 1 Assistant
- 7th Grade - 1 Assistant
- 1 Hall Monitor (on Mondays)

All volunteers will need to submit to a background check and complete the Safe Environment Training Program prescribed by the Archdiocese of New York.

How to Volunteer: If you feel called to serve, please reach out to our Religious Education Office at (914) 472-5594 or email Mrs. Ellen Aslanian at spxreled@spxny.org. Your willingness to serve our youth is a true blessing.

Thank you for being part of this sacred mission.

The Church of Saint Pius X Religious Education Program is now accepting Registration for school year 2024-2025!

To register, simply go to the Religious Education office and Mrs. Ellen Aslanian will happily assist you through the process. # Pastoral Care

If you are interested in participating in our Pastoral Care Ministry, please contact Debra Lupardo-Belotti at 914-714-8490 or the Parish office at 914-725-2755 to speak with one of our priests or staff members
