Saints & Special Observance

Sunday: Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Tuesday: St. Gregory the Great

Saint Gregory the Great

(c. 540 – March 12, 604), September 3

Gregory was the prefect of Rome before he was 30. After five years in office he resigned, founded six monasteries on his Sicilian estate, and became a Benedictine monk in his own home at Rome.

Ordained a priest, Gregory became one of the pope's seven deacons, and also served six years in the East as papal representative in Constantinople ... at the age of 50 was elected pope by the clergy and people of Rome.

Gregory was direct and firm. He removed unworthy priests from office, forbade taking money for many services, emptied the papal treasury to ransom prisoners of the Lombards and to care for persecuted Jews and the victims of plague and famine. He was very concerned about the conversion of England, sending 40 monks from his own monastery. He is known for his reform of the liturgy, and for strengthening respect for doctrine. Whether he was largely responsible for the revision of "Gregorian" chant is disputed.

Gregory lived in a time of perpetual strife with invading Lombards and difficult relations with the East. When Rome itself was under attack, he interviewed the Lombard king.

His book, Pastoral Care, on the duties and qualities of a bishop, was read for centuries after his death. He described bishops mainly as physicians whose main duties were preaching and the enforcement of discipline. In his own down-to-earth preaching, Gregory was skilled at applying the daily Gospel to the needs of his listeners. Called "the Great," Gregory has been given a place with Augustine, Ambrose, and Jerome, as one of the four key doctors of the Western Church.

An Anglican historian has written: "It is impossible to conceive what would have been the confusion, the lawlessness, the chaotic state of the Middle Ages without the medieval papacy; and of the medieval papacy, the real father is Gregory the Great."

Dear Padre

September 1, 2024

Do Christians need to follow the Ten Commandments, or are they the "Old Law"?

There is nothing arbitrary or old-fashioned about the commandments of God. The Ten Commandments, given to us by the Author of the World, are found in Exodus 20:2–17. They are: (1) I, the Lord, am your God. You shall not have other gods besides me. (2) You shall not take the name of the Lord, your God, in vain. (3) Remember to keep holy the Lord's day. (4) Honor your father and your mother. (5) You shall not kill. (6) You shall not commit adultery. (7) You shall not steal. (8) You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. (9) You shall not covet your neighbor's wife. (10) You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

The first three Commandments were meant to guide us in our relationship with God; the remaining seven Commandments pertain to our relationships with others. Jesus gives us a new motivation for keeping the Commandments—the motivation of love. He gives a double commandment: love of God and love of neighbor (Mark 12:28–34). Saint Paul tells us these new commands fulfill those of the Old Law (Romans 13:8–10); and John writes that keeping the Commandments simply out of fear of punishment is not enough: love must be the driving force (1 John 4:18). ●

Bag2 School THANK YOU!!

Dear Parishioners,
We are very happy to report that we have once again had a very successful Bag2 School initiative. Thanks to the generous contributions of our parishioners, we are able to distribute over $18,000.00 to three incredibly worthy organizations in our area:
My Sister's Place, The Sharing Shelf and Holy Spirit Church (in the Bronx). Your generosity and support are incredible! Our parish continues to be an inspiration to all. Thank you all so very, very much for this generous act of giving and bringing such joy to children as they head back to school.

Rosary Devotion Schedule Update

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29th, 1:30PM
The talk follows the celebration of the 12PM Mass at the St. Pius X Church. A light refreshment will be served.

Calls for expanded and fuller participation of women in church leadership have been heard throughout the multiyear synod process. In the synthesis document produced at the end of the Rome meeting in October 2023, the need to "ensure that women can participate in decision-making processes and assume roles of responsibility in pastoral care and ministry" was among a few issues described as "urgent." Please join us for an enlightening conversation about possible pathways for women's leadership in the Catholic church.

Any questions, please email Marina Cardillo at: mammadoc@gmail.com

"Let's Talk About It: Speaker Series" was created by St. Pius X Church in response to a parish survey. Parishioners requested more discussions and transparency on difficult topics.

IMPORTANT UPCOMING EVENTS FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Volunteers Needed to Spread the Good News!

The Parish Religious Education Program endeavors to bring the Gospel message to all the Catholic families in the Parish. Throughout the years, our Religious Education thrives because of the generosity and dedication of volunteers who contribute in various ways in nurturing the hearts and minds of our young ones.

This year, the R.E. needs volunteers who are willing to serve as either teacher's assistants or hall monitor to be able to effectively facilitate the learning of our students. High school students are welcome to apply!

Teacher's Assistants work closely with the teacher during religious education classes. They assist in preparing materials, setting up the classroom, implementing class projects and ensuring a smooth flow of activities. They help monitor the students to maintain discipline and order in the classroom. They check class attendance, and when needed, the assistants accompany students who may need to go out of the classroom (e.g. to use the restroom).

Hall Monitors ensure the safety of students and staff while classes are in session. They monitor entrances, hallways, and common areas to maintain order and minimize disruptions. They prevent unauthorized access and address any security concerns. They note and, if necessary, attend to any unusual patterns, such as late arrivals or early departures of students. In case of emergencies (fire drills, lockdowns, etc.), hall monitors assist in evacuations and follow established protocols.

R.E. volunteers needed for next year:

- 1st Grade - 4 Assistants
- 2nd Grade - 2 Assistants
- 3rd Grade - 1 Assistant
- 6th Grade - 1 Assistant
- 7th Grade - 1 Assistant
- 1 Hall Monitor (on Mondays)

All volunteers will need to submit to a background check and complete the Safe Environment Training Program prescribed by the Archdiocese of New York.

How to Volunteer: If you feel called to serve, please reach out to our Religious Education Office at (914) 472-5594 or email Mrs. Ellen Aslanian at spxreled@spxny.org. Your willingness to serve our youth is a true blessing.

Thank you for being part of this sacred mission.

The Church of Saint Pius X Religious Education Program classes for school year 2024-2025 begin:

Monday, 9/16/2024, 5th to 8th Grade, 3:30-4:30pm

Tuesday, 9/17/2024, 1st to 4th Grade, 3:30-5:00pm

Sunday, 10/6/2024, Kindergarten, 9:15-10:15am.

To register, simply go to the Religious Education office and Mrs. Ellen Aslanian will happily assist you through the process. Otherwise, you may also download our Registration Form, fill it out completely at your convenience, then submit it to the office together with the payment.

SPX Bible Study

We will be starting our Zoom Bible Studies from 7pm-8pm on October 10th. Our topic will be "The Chosen Series Bible Study"

What Does It Mean to Be Chosen? parallels each episode, connecting readers to the Bible in a brand-new way. It includes:

- A deeper look at Isaiah 43 and its fulfillment in Jesus and the lives of His followers (including us!)
- Script excerpts, quotes, and illustrations from the show
- Guiding questions for groups or individuals

Being chosen by Jesus has beautiful and far-reaching implications—although it says even more about the Chooser than the choosees. We are loved because He is love. We are saved because He is merciful. We belong to the family of God because Jesus invites us, making the Bible and all its promises as true for us today as it was for God's chosen people.

What does it actually mean to be Chosen? To answer that question, we're going Old school—Testament that is—which leads us back to the New. Which always leads us directly to Jesus.

Zoom information to follow.
