Saint Luke (d. c. 84), October 18

Luke wrote one of the major portions of the New Testament, a two-volume work comprising the third Gospel and Acts of the Apostles. In the two books he shows the parallel between the life of Christ and that of the Church. He is the only Gentile Christian among the Gospel writers. Tradition holds him to be a native of Antioch, and Paul calls him “our beloved physician.” His Gospel was probably written between 70 and 85 A.D.

Luke appears in Acts during Paul’s second journey, remains at Philippi for several years until Paul returns from his third journey, accompanies Paul to Jerusalem, and remains near him when he is imprisoned in Caesarea. During these two years, Luke had time to seek information and interview persons who had known Jesus. He accompanied Paul on the dangerous journey to Rome where he was a faithful companion.

Dear Padre

October 13, 2024

When should confirmation take place? I read that baptism, confirmation, and Eucharist were received all at the same time in the early Church.

Confirmation is one of the three sacraments of initiation. The other two are baptism and Eucharist. In the early Church, all three sacraments were usually received at the same time because most people receiving baptism were adults. As infant baptism started to become the norm, this sacrament was separated from the other two. After Vatican II, the trend moved the age of confirmation into the teenage years, so that in many places, confirmation takes place in seventh or eighth grade, or even later. There is still an argument among liturgists, educators, and theologians about whether such a separation should exist. Some think of confirmation as a coming-of-age sacrament, marking, as it were, the transition from childhood into adulthood in the Church. The theology of this sacrament, however, is based upon baptism and connects it to the commission to go out and touch the world with our faith. The ideal age for confirmation is the age at which we can, with the grace of the Holy Spirit, conscientiously and reasonably witness to our faith. ●

SEASONS OF HOPE A Catholic Bereavement Series

Are you grieving the loss of a loved one? The Church of St. Pius X is offering a six-session, scripture-based Catholic series for those in mourning. Seasons of Hope offers an opportunity to gather with others in a small group setting and to share in God's love. With the support of the faith community, we give voice to our unique journeys of grief and find healing and spiritual growth. Seasons of Hope sessions explore our personal journeys of mourning through scripture, prayer, reflection, and faith sharing.

The Seasons of Hope Fall Series begins on Monday, October 28th, and will meet for six Mondays through December 2nd (The class will not meet on Monday, November 11th, due to the holiday, but will meet on Tuesday, November 12th.)

Sessions run from 6:30 - 8:00 pm and meetings are held in the St. Pius X School (with zero entry accessibility). Pre-registration is required and the size of the group is limited. Due to the very personal sharing of this experience, all participants are required to register prior to October 21st. No one will be admitted to the program after that date.

Participants are expected to attend all sessions. To sign up for the program, please register through the link below.
