United For The Troops

Our RE students enthusiastically attended a presentation about the "United For The Troops" organization. The children listened attentively as the speaker shared inspiring stories and detailed how the organization supports military personnel by collecting goods and sending heartfelt cards. Their faces lit up with interest and curiosity as they learned about the meaningful impact the organization has on the lives of those serving in the military. The students were eager to ask questions, reflecting their genuine enthusiasm for supporting such an important cause.

Dear Padre

January 19, 2025

Is there a year of John? I know we're now in the year of Luke, next year will be the year of Matthew, and the following year will be the year of Mark. Then the cycle starts over with Luke. Why doesn't John have a year?

Matthew, Mark, and Luke, collectively known as the synoptic gospels, are narrative gospels. Together, they tell the story of Jesus of Nazareth. Although in some ways they might be understood synoptically, "the same," each narrative is unique in its emphasis. The Church desires that we hear these narratives and be nourished through the proclamation of the early memories of the Christian community.

John's Gospel, on the other hand, is not primarily a narrative, but is best understood as theological. As such, it is highly dependent on the use of symbolic representations to make the point it intends. For example, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me...will have the light of life" (John 8:12). The interplay between light and darkness illustrates the point. John's Gospel is intended to be experienced and engaged in as "bigger than life," proposing and celebrating Christian themes that are life-giving and inviting. Therefore, we hear John's Gospel when the Church celebrates the mystery of the saving life and resurrection of Jesus. For this reason, the Gospel of John is proclaimed on Good Friday, during the Easter season, and on other major feasts. ●

“Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now.”

JOHN 2:10

When Water Becomes Wine

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

For all of us, at one time or another, life seems to run out of wine. We look at our relationships and find ourselves saying, “There’s no more wine.” It may be a friendship of five years or a marriage of twenty-five years, but, for some, the wine runs out. For others, it is the job that loses its challenge. Or, one day, the foreman gathers everyone to announce that the plant is closing. In a moment, all has turned into vinegar; there is no more wine. For others still, it is when retirement suffocates the future, choking all that once gave meaning.

However, there are also those times when hope is reborn, when we feel “espoused” not only by life but also by God, when the ordinary turns extraordinary—and the water becomes wine. It is the phone call offering a new job after we have collected unemployment checks for months. It is falling in love when we have given up on the notion. It is conceiving a child after years of barren waiting. It is someone who listens, finally, when no one else would. It is at times like these—and many others as well—when we are caught off-balance and trip into God unwittingly, saved from drudgery and redeemed to live a life enriched, when water is turned into wine. It is a deeply felt joy that reveals God’s presence. ●

Reflect

Is there an area in your life where you need “new wine”?

SAINT PIUS X MEN'S MINISTRY

JOIN US ON SATURDAY, JAN 25, 2025,
FOR OUR FIRST IN-PERSON MEETING
FOR 2025!

Our mission

Our men's ministry is dedicated to empowering men in our community. We are here to guide each other, to help navigate all aspects of our lives with the wisdom and peace that comes from God. Together, we can inspire and motivate each other to live our best lives.

Why is this needed?

In today's world, men face numerous distractions, addictions, and influences that can pull them in different directions. Our men's ministry is a response to this, aiming to provide a path to true freedom in God.

The men's ministry is here to help you find the strength to pursue a meaningful life. Through prayer, fostering a deep connection with God, and practicing self-discipline to resist worldly distractions, we aim to provide the support and encouragement you need from your fellow brothers in faith.

Who is this for?

This ministry is open to all men, regardless of age, marital status, or background. Whether you're a young adult, married, or single, if you seek to lead your life with God's wisdom and peace, you are welcome here.

If interested, please email us at menministry@spxny.com.

ONGOING Food Drive

The holidays have come and gone. Unfortunately, parishioner food donations have also come and gone. Donations have dropped significantly since Thanksgiving. If it wasn't for the weekly donation of food brought to us by Kol Ami Synagogue in White Plains, we would not be able to help supply the increased needs of the working poor that we serve at St. Peter's-St. Denis'.

Most of us are blessed with so much. Can you help? Take advantage of supermarket sales, but if you are unable to shop for or carry canned or packaged food, a check in any amount can be sent to:

Family Hospitality Table

Hospitality after the 10:30am family Mass on Sundays has become an important ministry at St. Pius X. It allows parishioners to gather after Mass as a community to chat with friends and to welcome new families while enjoying a snack. We are looking for families to volunteer to host the Hospitality Table one Sunday during the year. We are most grateful for the kindness and generosity of the host families without whom this ministry would not be possible.
