Saint Paul Miki, February 6th

In the 1540s, St. Francis Xavier introduced Christianity to people in Japan. A generation later, Paul Miki was born and raised in the faith, one of the first fruits of the seeds planted by the great Jesuit missionary.

By the 1580s, there were more than 200,000 converts to Christianity in Japan, and the Japanese emperor felt threatened by the new religion. He banished Catholics in 1587, but the Jesuits who continued to serve the faithful there went into hiding and worked in secret.

Paul was born the son of a Japanese military leader and educated by these Jesuits. He wanted to become a priest and began studies. Just before his ordination, the emperor began violently persecuting Christians. Despite this, Paul decided to continue his ministry and was known for his eloquent and intelligent preaching.

Under this persecution, Paul and 25 other men and boys—Jesuits, Franciscans, and lay people—were arrested and condemned to execution. They were forcibly marched 600 miles throughout Japan so as to be an example to other people. Villagers abused them as they passed by, but the Christians sang the Te Deum, an early Christian hymn of praise.

As he was awaiting death, Paul said, “The only reason for my being killed is that I have taught the doctrine of Christ. I thank God it is for this reason that I die. I believe that I am telling the truth before I die. I know you believe me and I want to say to you all once again: Ask Christ to help you become happy. I obey Christ. After Christ’s example, I forgive my persecutors. I do not hate them. I ask God to have pity on all, and I hope my blood will fall on my fellow men as a fruitful rain.”

Indeed it did. St. Paul Miki and his companions were the first martyrs of Japan, and their example sustained the Christian community there with courage, even as it survived underground for 300 years.

St. Paul Miki and Companions, martyrs whose example encouraged Christians in Japan—pray for us!

Dear Padre

February 2, 2025

What happened to Candlemas? When I was a child, there was one day when everyone brought candles to church to have them blessed. At the end of Mass, the priest would bless everyone’s throats with the candles.

Candlemas is another name for our celebration of the Presentation of the Lord: the day Mary and Joseph presented their child to God in the Temple at Jerusalem in accordance with the law of Moses (Luke 2:22–38). We remember how the elderly believers Simeon and Anna recognized Jesus as their longed-for Messiah and how, addressing God in a canticle, Simeon proclaimed Christ to be “a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel” (Luke 2:32).

Mass on this day often begins with the blessing and lighting of candles, which the priest and people carry into the church. The name Candlemas springs from this ritual blessing.

The day after the feast of the Presentation is the memorial celebration of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr. According to tradition, St. Blaise was instrumental in healing a person who was choking. The Church remembers this encounter and celebrates the intervention of the Spirit of God through the blessing of throats, using the blessed candles from the feast of the Presentation. It is a wonderful and very practical spiritual practice that is much appreciated and anticipated each year. ●

ARCHDIOCESE
OF NEW YORK

Discover the Grace of the Jubilee: A Guide to Plenary Indulgences in 2025

During the Ordinary Jubilee Year of 2025, called by His Holiness Pope Francis, the faithful can obtain a plenary indulgence – the remission of all temporal punishment due to sin – either for themselves or for the souls in Purgatory.

Requirements for Obtaining the Plenary Indulgence

All the faithful must be:

- Truly repentant
- Free from attachment to sin
- Purified through the Sacrament of Penance
- Refreshed by Holy Communion
- Pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff

Various Ways to Obtain the Indulgence in the Archdiocese of New York

Through Pilgrimage

Visit any designated Jubilee site in the Archdiocese and participate in one of these devotions:

- Holy Mass
- Celebration of the Word of God
- Liturgy of the Hours
- Stations of the Cross
- Marian Rosary
- Penitential celebration with individual confession

Through Pious Visits

Visit a Jubilee site and devoutly:

- Engage in Eucharistic adoration and meditation
- Conclude with:
 - Our Father
 - Profession of Faith
 - Invocations to Mary

Designated Jubilee pilgrimage sites:

- St. Patrick's Cathedral, Manhattan
- Basilica of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral, Manhattan
- St. Frances Cabrini Shrine, Manhattan

- National Shrine of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, Middletown
- Franciscan Friars of the Atonement at Graymoor, Garrison
- Mt. Alvernia Retreat Center, Wappingers Falls
- National Shrine of Mary Help of Christians, Stony Point
- Schoenstatt Shrine of Light, Staten Island

Works of Mercy and Penance

Participate in:

- Popular missions
- Spiritual exercises
- Formation activities on Vatican II documents
- Study of the Catechism of the Catholic Church

Special Provisions

Those who cannot make a pilgrimage due to serious reasons (elderly, sick, imprisoned, or caregivers) may obtain the indulgence by:

- Uniting spiritually with jubilee celebrations
- Offering their sufferings to God
- Praying the Our Father, the Creed, and other prayers in their place of confinement

For complete details and updates throughout the Jubilee Year, visit archny.org/jubilee2025

Dear Fr. Sebastian,

On behalf of the residents and administrators at St. Patrick's Home, I am writing to say "Thank You" to you and your parishioners for the generous donation made to the residents of St. Patrick's Home.

The items were given to the residents that were most in need of them as personal Christmas Gifts. Some items will be used as gifts for games and for arts & craft projects.

Please convey our thanks to all the parishioners who volunteered to organize this endeavor of collecting and packaging the items. They truly made Christmas "Merry and Bright" for the residents here at St. Patrick's Home.

I also want to give special thanks to the group who came in the cold weather to deliver the gifts.

I am indeed grateful for your generosity and thank you for remembering our residents during the Christmas Season. May God continue Bless you all!

Sincerely,

Dear Father Sebastian,

Once again, I'm writing to thank you for your generosity in the ongoing support to our Christmas Adopt a Family Program. Your generosity has helped so many families in need!

It has been a very difficult for so many families who come on a daily basis asking for help. Some of those we serve have been impacted by illness, others have just arrived in the United States and have limited or no resources, others are impacted by the economy and have fallen behind on their rent and utility bills.

Father Sebastian, I would also want to say thank you to Marie-Helene. I am so very grateful to her for taking on and organizing this Adopt a Family Program. She is an amazing person!

We are very grateful to you continuing to support us and for going the extra mile to help those less fortunate.

May God bless you and your families for your generosity in this new year!

ONGOING Food Drive

The holidays have come and gone. Unfortunately, parishioner food donations have also come and gone. Donations have dropped significantly since Thanksgiving. If it wasn't for the weekly donation of food brought to us by Kol Ami Synagogue in White Plains, we would not be able to help supply the increased needs of the working poor that we serve at St. Peter's-St. Denis'.

Most of us are blessed with so much. Can you help? Take advantage of supermarket sales, but if you are unable to shop for or carry canned or packaged food, a check in any amount can be sent to:

UNITED FOR THE TROOPS

United for the Troops (UFTT) is an organization created by families and friends of our troops serving the U.S. abroad. Their purpose is to make life a little more comfortable for our brave men and women serving in the U.S. military by sending them care packages that contain Thank You cards, food, and goods that the military does not provide. The goal of the organization is to show our soldiers that we are proud of them and appreciate all their efforts.

The Presentation of the Lord
Malachi 3:1-4 / Hebrews 2:14-18 /
Luke 2:22-40 or 2:22-32

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

It is always a blessed and holy occasion when parents bring their child to the parish church for baptism. They gather family and friends and proudly present their child to both God and the faith community. Somewhere in the midst of it all, they will wonder who their child will become, what their child's gifts and talents will be, and what hopes and dreams their child will have. Yet like Simeon, who blessed the Holy Family in the Temple, they will also realize that life is not always favorable to us. As Simeon foretold, "Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many...and you yourself a sword will pierce" (Luke 2:34-35).

Although we recognize that suffering is a part of everyone's life, and we would never wish it upon a child, we might hope that the child does not run from every suffering, for it becomes the path to wisdom and compassion—perhaps the only path. We might also wish on the child a bit of loneliness, for it teaches us to treasure friends. And amid hoping for the blessing of success, losing can also be a gift and a blessing, for it is how we learn to deal with failure and understand the important lesson that we cannot always have our own way. Failure can be the seed of humility. Fortunately, while doing our best as parents, we must allow God to decide how our children will be blessed and what will nurture their growth into the image of Jesus. We simply present them to God from whom they came. ●
