Saints & Special Observance

Sunday: 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Monday: The Seven Holy Founders of the Servite Order
Friday: St. Peter Damian

Saint Peter Damian, February 21st

Maybe because he was orphaned and had been treated shabbily by one of his brothers, Peter Damian was very good to the poor. It was the ordinary thing for him to have a poor person or two with him at table and he liked to minister personally to their needs.

Peter escaped poverty and the neglect of his own brother when his other brother, who was archpriest of Ravenna, took him under his wing. His brother sent him to good schools and Peter became a professor.

Already in those days, Peter was very strict with himself. He wore a hair shirt under his clothes, fasted rigorously and spent many hours in prayer. Soon, he decided to leave his teaching and give himself completely to prayer with the Benedictines of the reform of Saint Romuald at Fonte Avellana. They lived two monks to a hermitage. Peter was so eager to pray and slept so little that he soon suffered from severe insomnia. He found he had to use some prudence in taking care of himself. When he was not praying, he studied the Bible.

The abbot commanded that when he died Peter should succeed him. Abbot Peter founded five other hermitages. He encouraged his brothers in a life of prayer and solitude and wanted nothing more for himself. The Holy See periodically called on him, however, to be a peacemaker or troubleshooter, between two abbeys in dispute or a cleric or government official in some disagreement with Rome.

Finally, Pope Stephen IX made Peter the cardinal-bishop of Ostia. He worked hard to wipe out simony—the buying of church offices—and encouraged his priests to observe celibacy and urged even the diocesan clergy to live together and maintain scheduled prayer and religious observance. He wished to restore primitive discipline among religious and priests, warning against needless travel, violations of poverty, and too comfortable living. He even wrote to the bishop of Besancon complaining that the canons there sat down when they were singing the psalms in the Divine Office.

He asked often to be allowed to retire as cardinal-bishop of Ostia, and finally Pope Alexander II consented. Peter was happy to become once again just a monk, but he was still called to serve as a papal legate. When returning from such an assignment in Ravenna, he was overcome by a fever. With the monks gathered around him saying the Divine Office, he died on February 22, 1072. In 1828, he was declared a Doctor of the Church.

Dear Padre

February 16, 2025

I have always been an “every Sunday” Catholic. My problem is that holy Communion doesn’t feel that special. I believe that it’s the Body and Blood of Christ, but receiving feels “routine.” Sometimes I’m even distracted while receiving. Help?

Do you remember the story of the transfiguration of Jesus? (See Luke 9:28–36.) Jesus took his three special disciples, Peter, James, and John, up on the mountain, and while Jesus was praying, what did they do? They fell asleep! In the very presence of Jesus, their Lord and Master.

Human beings cannot maintain feelings of awe and ecstasy for long periods of time. We would be exhausted. Feelings don’t always reflect the specialness of the moment. That is why good habits are so important. Feelings may elude us, but we can fall back on the habit of Sunday Mass. Just as two contented, long-married people don’t feel like they did on their honeymoon, they still quietly enjoy the habit of each other’s company.

Lent is coming soon. You might consider shaking up your routine a little. Attend one weekday Mass. Prepare for Sunday Mass by reading the Scriptures for that Sunday and praying the entrance antiphon or the psalm. If you don’t already, consider volunteering as a choir member, lector, or extraordinary minister of holy Communion. Meanwhile, continue to receive holy Communion, giving thanks that it is readily available, and perhaps offer a prayer for communities where Communion every Sunday is not possible. ●

The Church of St. Pius X Religious Education Program is proud to partner with the St. Bartholomew Episcopal Church Community Soup Kitchen in White Plains, New York. As part of their community service efforts, our 8th-grade Confirmation candidates will provide and serve meals to 50-60 individuals on January 12, February 9, and March 9, 2025. These meals are made possible through the proceeds from the candidates' annual Christmas Bake Sale.

SHARING GOD'S GIFTS

The 2025 Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal has officially begun at St. Pius X Parish! The Appeal is a direct ask from Cardinal Dolan to raise $21 million in funds to support the needs of the charitable work and Catholic institutions of the Archdiocese of New York. As a parish community, we are asked to help the Appeal by raising $109,800. Please consider making a gift today to further the mission of the Church and to help us make our goal by Pentecost. Remember to use parish number 536 on your gift or pledge to the Cardinal's Appeal. You can find more details on how the funds will be distributed by visiting cardinalsappeal.org.

Scan the QR Code to help further the impact or visit cardinalsappeal.org/donate.

ONGOING Food Drive

The holidays have come and gone. Unfortunately, parishioner food donations have also come and gone. Donations have dropped significantly since Thanksgiving. If it wasn't for the weekly donation of food brought to us by Kol Ami Synagogue in White Plains, we would not be able to help supply the increased needs of the working poor that we serve at St. Peter's-St. Denis'.

Most of us are blessed with so much. Can you help? Take advantage of supermarket sales, but if you are unable to shop for or carry canned or packaged food, a check in any amount can be sent to:

Church of St. Pius X
Attn: Parish Office
91 Secor Road

Please note in the memo section that this is for the Food Pantry.

Thank you so much!!
