Saints & Special Observance
Sunday: Third Sunday of Advent
Saturday: St. Peter Canisius

5th and 6th Grade Community Service Project

On Sunday, December 1st, the St. Pius X 5th and 6th graders devoted their time and their hearts to help those who have less by helping to distribute jeans, hats, gloves, undergarments and so much more, to the soup kitchen attendees at St. Bartholomew's Church in White Plains. Items that were purchased came from the money that was raised from the Spring 2024 bake sale. The gently used jeans were donated by the St. Pius parish in August. The experience for all those involved was priceless.

Season's
Greetings

Dear Padre

December 15, 2024

My family, friends, and coworkers seem to be uncomfortable when I tell them that I've been praying for them. Should I just keep it to myself?

There is nothing fundamentally wrong with telling people you have been praying for them. Most people are probably grateful for such care and support. But it can be a little tricky. If the person believes the praying is actually a judgment and not a blessing, it may provoke a less-than-grateful response. This is where honest discernment on your part is invited. Are you coming across as prayerfully concerned, or is there some criticism or judgment in what seems to be an innocent blessing? People are able to perceive the difference.

Another consideration—and this is not at all unusual as a response in the culture of today—is that some people are very defensive about any religious expressions and do not react favorably. Think, for example, about the different reactions to “Merry Christmas” or “Happy Holidays,” which can often provoke the familiar idiom “them’s fightin’ words.” My best advice is to keep praying for everyone, as no one truly understands or fully appreciates the power of prayer. That being said, temper your announcement when you suspect it will not be well received. This demonstrates a grateful and blessed heart, which is what you intend and hope for, after all. ●

Church of Saint Pius X Annual Brunch with Santa

Last Saturday we gathered over 100 members of our community for the annual Santa Brunch! The children and families enjoyed a terrific brunch buffet organized by Jen and Bill Lacerenza, as well as crafts and tables provided by Claire Hunt and Isabelle Smith. Christmas Village by Ana Marmann and her girls Juliana and Isabella. Pamela Mo outdid herself again with a tremendous assortment of raffle prizes and families also enjoyed pictures with our very own Santa! It was a wonderful part of St Pius' Christmas celebrations!

Thank you to our Santa Brunch Coordinator - Isabelle De Trabuc-Smith and her Family for organizing everything year after year and to all of our dedicated Santa Brunch Committee members, volunteers and donors. We appreciate it!

TAXES AND GIVING AT CHRISTMAS AND YEAR'S END

Did you know that "charitable giving" is one of only a few tax provisions that was not greatly impacted by recent federal tax legislation? Many people enjoy using Christmas and year's end as a special time to give to their favorite Catholic institutions and also positively impact their federal and state income taxes. Christmas and year end giving provides many advantages to you, the donor.

All gifts made on or before December 31 are tax deductible for the tax year in which your gift is made.

The knowledge that your gift is assisting a favorite Catholic institution and advancing the mission of the Catholic Church here on earth, celebrates the joy of Christmas by giving in the true spirit of the season. It is a last reminder to make that special gift or increased gift that you've wanted to make during the year.

If you are an itemizer, your gift will lessen your tax liability for the tax year in which your gift is made. If you are not an itemizer, your Christmas gift may be just the right decision to allow you to itemize and lower your tax bill (check with your tax advisor).

A "Carry Over Deduction," depending on your age, income and the size of your gift, may enable you to "carry over" your charitable gift tax deduction to subsequent years.

For questions of specific nature, please contact your accountant, attorney or other financial professional.

Most importantly, make a return to God of your blessings at Christmas and assist our Catholic institution reach its spiritual and programmatic goals: serving God's people and His Church here on earth.
