Church of Saint Pius X Annual Tree Lighting

Church of Saint Pius X

Christmas 2025

“The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who lived in a land of gloom a light has shone” (Isaiah 9:1)

Dear Parish Family,

As Christmas draws near, I want to thank you for making the Church of St. Pius X your spiritual home. Your presence, prayers, and generous spirit continue to bring light and life to our parish community.

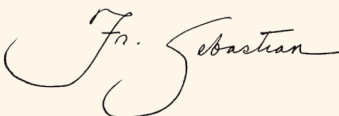

During this holy season, I already see the Christ Child being born among us, not just in decorations, carols and candles, but in the compassionate outreach efforts underway throughout our parish for residents of St. Patrick’s Nursing Home and Cabrini Nursing Home, families in need through our Adopt-a-Family program, and underprivileged children through our Angel Giving Tree. These acts of love demonstrate Christ is dwelling among us even now.

Whatever your troubles, I pray you will welcome the Christ Child into your heart so God can feed you, restore you and renew you. In welcoming the Christ Child this holy season, you, like the shepherds and magi, are invited to ask for peace and solace. If you are encountering darkness, remember Christ is the Light of Life. If you are confused, recall Christ is the Wonderful Counselor. If you are conflicted, recollect that Christ is the Prince of Peace. If you feel guilty, recall Christ is the Merciful One. If you are afraid, remember Christ is the Good Shepherd. If you are grieving, bear in mind Christ says “Do not let your hearts be troubled.” If you are lonely, know Christ is Emmanuel and God is with us always.

As you prepare your hearts and homes for His coming, may you be filled with the gifts of hope, peace, and love. On behalf of Fr. Rocky and the entire staff of the Church of St. Pius X, I wish you all a blessed Christmas. I look forward to celebrating the joy of Christmas with you during Mass.

Come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord, our Savior, and our Light!

With gratitude and every blessing of the season,

Father Sebastian
Pastor
