Treasures from our Tradition

By now, many may have failed in Lenten discipline to some measure or another: the daily doughnut is simply too alluring, or a furtive puff on a cigarette irresistible. There is meaning even in the failure, though, a kind of reminder that we cannot save ourselves. Part of the power of Lent is that we do it together, and although individuals decide on different ways to keep it, it is fundamentally the same journey. We fall, we get up, we keep moving. The desire to “give something up” for Lent is an age-old impulse in the Christian heart. We get better at it over the years, and move more deeply into the meaning and message of acts of sacrifice; so there is no shame in stumbling, as long as we are not discouraged by the failure and give up. We are clearing space in our lives, after all, and some of the things we desire to give up are worth rooting out completely anyway.

What do we do with the space we have cleared out by our sacrifice? The Lenten question of giving up is balanced by the Easter question of our response to Christ's embrace of us in love: “What are you taking on for Easter?” --James Field, Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

Bingo & Hot Cocoa Event, February 28, 2026 — More than 80 adults with developmental disabilities and their support staff enjoyed an afternoon of Bingo and hot cocoa in the St. Pius X Parish Hall. The event was hosted by high school students from our Youth Ministry, who greeted guests, served refreshments, supported the Bingo games, and distributed prizes. This gathering was organized in response to the overwhelmingly positive feedback from attendees of our Luncheon for People with Disabilities, many of whom expressed a desire to return and continue building relationships with our youth and parish community. The afternoon was a wonderful expression of hospitality, inclusion, and shared joy, and we are grateful to everyone who helped make it happen.

LIGHT UP THE NIGHT

Lenten Prayer Service
Thursday, March 19, 2026

7:30 pm to 8:30 pm

Adoration, Prayer, Reflection and Music

We are honored to welcome Fr. Justin Cinnante, a Carmelite Priest and the Chaplain at Iona Preparatory High School, who will participate in our prayer service and share a reflection

“For with you is the fountain of life, and in your light we see light.”

Fr. Justin Cinnante,
O. Carm

Fr. Justin Cinnante is a priest of the Carmelite religious order (Ancient Observance or O.Carm.) and has years of experience with retreats, missions, and youth ministry.

His main ministry is to serve as chaplain of Iona Preparatory School in New Rochelle. He also leads a healing ministry at his parish, The Church of the Transfiguration, in Tarrytown, NY.

"Fr. Justin" is a recognized name in Westchester County thanks to the loving ministry and infectious smile and humor of this beloved priest.

Inspired at a very young age by the book, "The Lives of Saints," Father Cinnante states, "God has a plan for everyone. The vocation for all of us is to be holy, to become a saint."

After being ordained as a priest in 2007, Father Cinnante served as a diocesan priest for ten years before he felt called to the Carmelite order.
