WHAT IS LAETARE SUNDAY?

(Excerpts taken from fathersforgood.com interview with Father Ernest, Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in Scarsdale)

Fathers for Good: Where does the name “Laetare Sunday” come from?

Father Ernest: Laetare Sunday ... takes its name from the Latin word which begins the entrance antiphon for that day. Laetare means rejoice, and this Sunday is marked by a relaxation of the penitential character of the Lenten season. In church, flowers may be used to adorn the altar on this day, and the organ may be played more fully.

FFG: Are we supposed to “Rejoice!” [during] Lent?

Father Ernest: Indeed we are! On this Sunday, we look with expectation to the great Solemnity of Easter for which we have been preparing ourselves as a Church during the Lenten season. By its anticipation of the joy of Easter, Laetare Sunday is meant to give us hope and encouragement ...

FFG: Did the priests used to wear pink rose vestments on this Sunday?

Father Ernest: Not only did priests used to wear rose vestments, but they still may! ...The color rose is used as a sign of the joy ... [and] stems from an ancient papal tradition of blessing golden roses which would be sent to Catholic heads of state in Europe on the Fourth Sunday of Lent ...

Adoration, Prayer, Reflection and Music

We are honored to welcome Fr. Justin Cinnante, a Carmelite Priest and the Chaplain at Iona Preparatory High School, who will participate in our prayer service and share a reflection

“For with you is the fountain of life, and in your light we see light.”

Fr. Justin Cinnante,
O. Carm

Fr. Justin Cinnante is a priest of the Carmelite religious order (Ancient Observance or O.Carm.) and has years of experience with retreats, missions, and youth ministry.

His main ministry is to serve as chaplain of Iona Preparatory School in New Rochelle. He also leads a healing ministry at his parish, The Church of the Transfiguration, in Tarrytown, NY.

"Fr. Justin" is a recognized name in Westchester County thanks to the loving ministry and infectious smile and humor of this beloved priest.

Inspired at a very young age by the book, "The Lives of Saints," Father Cinnante states, "God has a plan for everyone. The vocation for all of us is to be holy, to become a saint."

After being ordained as a priest in 2007, Father Cinnante served as a diocesan priest for ten years before he felt called to the Carmelite order.

Saint Pius X Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA)

Please pray for the following OCIA participants who will receive the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil. Please join us in praying for them as they enter into full communion with our Catholic faith: Erjona Ulaj and Augusto Albuquerque.

Meet Augusto: Augusto has lived in the area for 14 years and is a recent college graduate. His journey to this point was inspired by his time studying history, instilling a desire to grow closer to God. While he grew up away from the church, he felt a calling to become more Catholic and get involved here at the Church of Saint Pius X. He has enjoyed learning about the Trinity and the Doctrines of the faith through OCIA. He is seeking the Sacraments of Initiation to strengthen his relationship with God and to properly join the community of the faithful. He asks for your prayers as he takes this next step.
