Richard Vera

Richard Vera is a native of Ecuador who has been happily married to his wife, a Panamanian native, for 26 years. Together they have two children, ages 26 and 21, who currently live in New York City. Richard and his family relocated to New York in 2012 when his company transferred him from Miami. After living in Mamaroneck and Tuckahoe, they settled in Scarsdale in 2016. The family has been part of the St. Pius X community since 2011, drawn by the inspiring homilies of Father Sebastian. In 2022, Richard joined the Parish Council and began serving as Secretary the following year. He is deeply committed to supporting the parish and looks forward to continuing his service to the St. Pius X community.

Pauline O'Hanlon

Pauline O'Hanlon has been a dedicated member of the St. Pius X parish community for many years and is currently serving on the Parish Council, where she has been an active and engaged participant. She frequently volunteers as a Eucharistic Minister and generously gives her time to initiatives such as the Coat Drive. If you've attended the St. Patrick's Day Luncheon, you've likely enjoyed Pauline's delicious corned beef. Pauline is also involved in a variety of parish activities, including spiritual events like our annual Light Up the Night celebration. She serves on the liturgical committee and contributes to pastoral care efforts within the parish. Pauline looks forward to continuing her service to the community as she seeks a second term on the Parish Council.

Anthony Fiorenza

Anthony Fiorenza is a devoted member of the St. Pius X parish community, committed to serving with faith, integrity, and care for others. During his time on the Parish Council, he has focused on strengthening parish safety, supporting clear and effective protocols, and helping ensure alignment with Archdiocese guidance. He is also leading efforts to organize and digitize important parish records to better protect and serve the community. Anthony is seeking reelection to continue building a safe, faithful, and united parish for all.

Kenza Martin-Williams

Kenza Martin-Williams joined St. Pius X Church in 2023 after returning to New York with her husband and their two young daughters. She was raised in a Catholic, Caribbean household, which shaped her faith and strong sense of community from an early age. Kenza is a Registered Nurse and currently works in strategic operations for the Mount Sinai Health System. She is a Eucharistic Minister and lector, and her eldest daughter participates in religious education and the children's choir. While the children's Mass first brought her to St. Pius X, it was the genuine sense of belonging she found within the parish community that kept her coming back. As a member of the Parish Council, Kenza hopes to contribute her time and energy to strengthening the community and supporting the welcoming environment that has meant so much to her family.

Stephen Slaby

Stephen Slaby's first time at St. Pius X was for a funeral of a family friend in October of 2021. His family officially joined the parish in 2023. Stephen works for Westchester Independent Living Center (WILC). WILC is a non-profit organization that helps people with disabilities by providing advocacy, resources and information. Stephen started working at WILC in June of 2017, and has been the office manager there since March of 2023.

Lucy Chan

Lucy Chan has been part of the Westchester County community for many years and views leadership as an act of service and stewardship. Growing up in Hong Kong and later building her life in New York shaped her belief that strong communities are built through listening, empathy, and shared responsibility. After a multi-decade career at IBM and years of nonprofit leadership, Lucy's faith has become a more intentional and grounding part of her life. She hopes to bring that spirit, along with her experience and multicultural perspective, to help support a welcoming and connected parish community.
