Eucharistic Adoration at the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church (8 Carman Road, Scarsdale, NY 10583)

- Monday: 7:10am – 8pm
- Tuesday: 7:10am – 1pm

Individuals and groups can participate in 250 Works of Mercy by engaging in the existing activities and efforts of their parishes, getting involved in new ways, and by participating with local and national organizations on a weekly or monthly basis leading up to the July 4th anniversary. - Assisting women who face a crisis pregnancy
- Donating to food pantries and clothing closets
- Participating in a community beautification program
- Raising money for an overseas development project
- Sponsoring a refugee family
- Tutoring children
- Volunteering at homeless shelters

Dear Padre

June 21, 2026

For the past year or so, I have been trying to pray on a regular basis, but I am constantly distracted. My mind wanders so easily. Do you have any suggestions?

Distractions in prayer are an inescapable part of the human condition and the results of our imagination. Even great saints experienced distractions in prayer. Some of their suggestions may help. For example, when St. Thérèse of Lisieux struggled with prayer, she would recite an Our Father or Hail Mary or read from the gospels. Praying as an act of faith or returning to God's presence and love can turn our focus away from other concerns, but, even then, distractions may still arise.

When we become aware of distractions, we should calmly renew our focus and continue our prayer. Saint Teresa of Ávila wrote in The Interior Castle, "We should not be distressed by reason of our thoughts, nor allow ourselves to be worried by them.... [Thoughts are] inevitable. Do not let [them] disturb or grieve you." No matter how often distractions return or how long they last, they are not sinful; rather, they are opportunities to show God that we are sincere about praying.

Saint Alphonsus, another great teacher of prayer, reminds us that prayer is necessary, beneficial, and always possible. He advises us to hang in there, because the devil would like nothing better than for us to stop praying. ●

WeShare Online Giving

If you have not done so already, this may be a good time to consider switching from envelopes to our convenient and secure online giving program, WeShare, especially in light of the continued delays and problems we have experienced with our envelope company.

Online giving helps reduce paper mailings and provides greater convenience and savings for both you and St. Pius X Parish.

Parishioners may also choose to give through direct bank payments/ACH transfers, which carry no additional processing fees to the parish.

If you would like assistance getting set up with WeShare or bank giving, please contact Lois or Luisa in the Parish Office. We would be happy to assist you and get you set up in just a few minutes.

Many parishioners of St. Pius X are already participating in WeShare, and more continue to join all the time. Thank you for your continued generosity and faithful support of our parish community.

Share Your Gifts at Mass: Become a Lector or Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion

Have you ever considered becoming more involved in the liturgical life of our parish?

We invite parishioners to prayerfully consider sharing their gifts in one of these important ministries.

Lectors:

Lectors have the privilege of proclaiming the Word of God at Mass. Through prayerful preparation and clear proclamation, they help bring the Scriptures to life and assist the congregation in hearing and reflecting on God's message.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion:

Ministers assist the clergy in the distribution of the Body and Blood of Christ during Mass. This ministry is a profound act of service, helping the faithful receive the Eucharist with reverence and devotion.

Parishioners who actively practice their Catholic faith and have received the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation may participate in these ministries. Training is required for both ministries. Thereafter, ministers are placed on a rotating schedule prepared every three months.

If you feel called to serve, or for more information, please speak with Father Sebastian or Father Rocky, or contact Lois Montorio at spxoffice@spxny.org or 914-725-2755.

Young Adult Mass – Friday, July 24th.

The Church of St. Pius X will be hosting a Young Adult Mass for those ages 18-40. Mass will start at 7pm and a social with light food and refreshments will follow. For more information please email connect@spxny.org or call the Parish office at (914) 725-2755.

Bag-2-School

We invite you to support our St. Pius X Parish Bag-2-School campaign and help make a meaningful difference. Many families are facing hardships, and their children deserve the opportunity to learn. The good news is your generosity makes it possible to help. This year, we hope to continue supporting:

- My Sister's Place: This wonderful organization strives to end domestic violence and human trafficking by providing free education, outreach, and confidential supportive and legal services throughout Westchester County. The goal is to send tablets and/or school supplies to the children at the shelter. The students and counselors would really appreciate our support!
- The Sharing Shelf's Backpacks to School: This program provides new backpacks and new school supplies to low-income children and teens in Westchester County. The organization plans to provide not just the basics, but enhanced materials such as age-appropriate educational magazines, puzzles, activity sets and books.
- Holy Spirit Church (Bronx): Underprivileged children in public schools under the Holy Spirit Church's (Father Gabriel's parish) religious education program need supplies for the upcoming school year. They are very grateful for your generosity
- Fr. Raymond Vijandre's Sunday School in the Philippines: This ministry focuses on empowering youth, providing moral formation, and teaching children in local villages. The program relies on several key pillars to reach communities across the Philippines: Village level teaching, Multilingual translation and Mission support & Supplies.
