Saints & Special Observances

Sunday: Divine Mercy Sunday

Tuesday: St. Martin I

Saint Martin I, April 13

When Martin I became pope in 649, Constantinople was the capital of the Byzantine empire and the patriarch of Constantinople was the most influential Church leader in the eastern Christian world. The struggles that existed within the Church at that time were magnified by the close cooperation of emperor and patriarch.

A teaching, strongly supported in the East, held that Christ had no human will. Twice, emperors had officially favored this position: Heraclius by publishing a formula of faith, and Constans II by silencing the issue of one or two wills in Christ.

Shortly after assuming the office of the papacy—which he did without first being confirmed by the emperor—Martin held a council at the Lateran in which the imperial documents were censured, and in which the patriarch of Constantinople and two of his predecessors were condemned. In response, Constans II first tried to turn bishops and people against the pope.

Failing in this and in an attempt to kill the pope, the emperor sent troops to Rome to seize Martin ... Already in poor health, Martin offered no resistance ... and was then submitted to various imprisonments, tortures, and hardships ... Martin was saved from execution by the pleas of a repentant Paul, patriarch of Constantinople, who was himself gravely ill. Tortures and cruel treatment having taken their toll, Martin died shortly thereafter. He is the last of the early popes to be venerated as a martyr.

Reflection

The real significance of the word martyr comes not from the dying but from the witnessing, which the word means in its derivation. People who are willing to give up everything ... put a supreme value on the cause or belief for which they sacrifice. Martyrdom, dying for the faith, is an incidental extreme ... A living faith, a life that exemplifies Christ's teaching throughout, and that in spite of difficulties, is required of all Christians. Martin refused to cut corners as a way of easing his lot, to make some accommodations with the civil rulers.

Easter gift baskets to our long-term parishioners: On Wednesday March 31, volunteers from our parish put together very colorful and delightful Easter gift baskets. The baskets, each containing a big chocolate egg, a banana nut bread and other treats, were distributed on Saturday April 3, to some of our long term and homebound parishioners by a second group of volunteers. We are thankful to all that contributed to bring an Easter smile, especially to our RE students, who helped with decorating hard boiled eggs and with the delivery.

Join the Church of St. Pius X for our VIRTUAL Race With Grace fundraising event. Our Parish is built on faith, community, and service. In these challenging times for so many, we want to continue to find new ways to support local organizations on their journey to spread love and hope.

Let's use the inspiration, hope and light of the Easter season to come together and support an amazing non-profit.

This year, all proceeds will benefit the Thrive for Life Prison Project. An anonymous parishioner has pledged to match the donations total up to $10,000. We really need all your help to reach our goal!

Thrive for Life Prison Project transforms lives behind and beyond the U.S. prison walls through monthly retreats rooted in the spiritual tradition of St. Ignatius of Loyola, founder of the Jesuits, in over six correctional facilities in the NY metro area. In 2019, Thrive for Life opened Ignacio House of Studies, a transitional supportive living community for returning scholars in collaboration with partnering universities and colleges.

While it's still required of us to maintain some distance, our race will be completely virtual. Spend some time outside and run, walk, bike, swim, or even pray your way through the race to support this wonderful organization.
